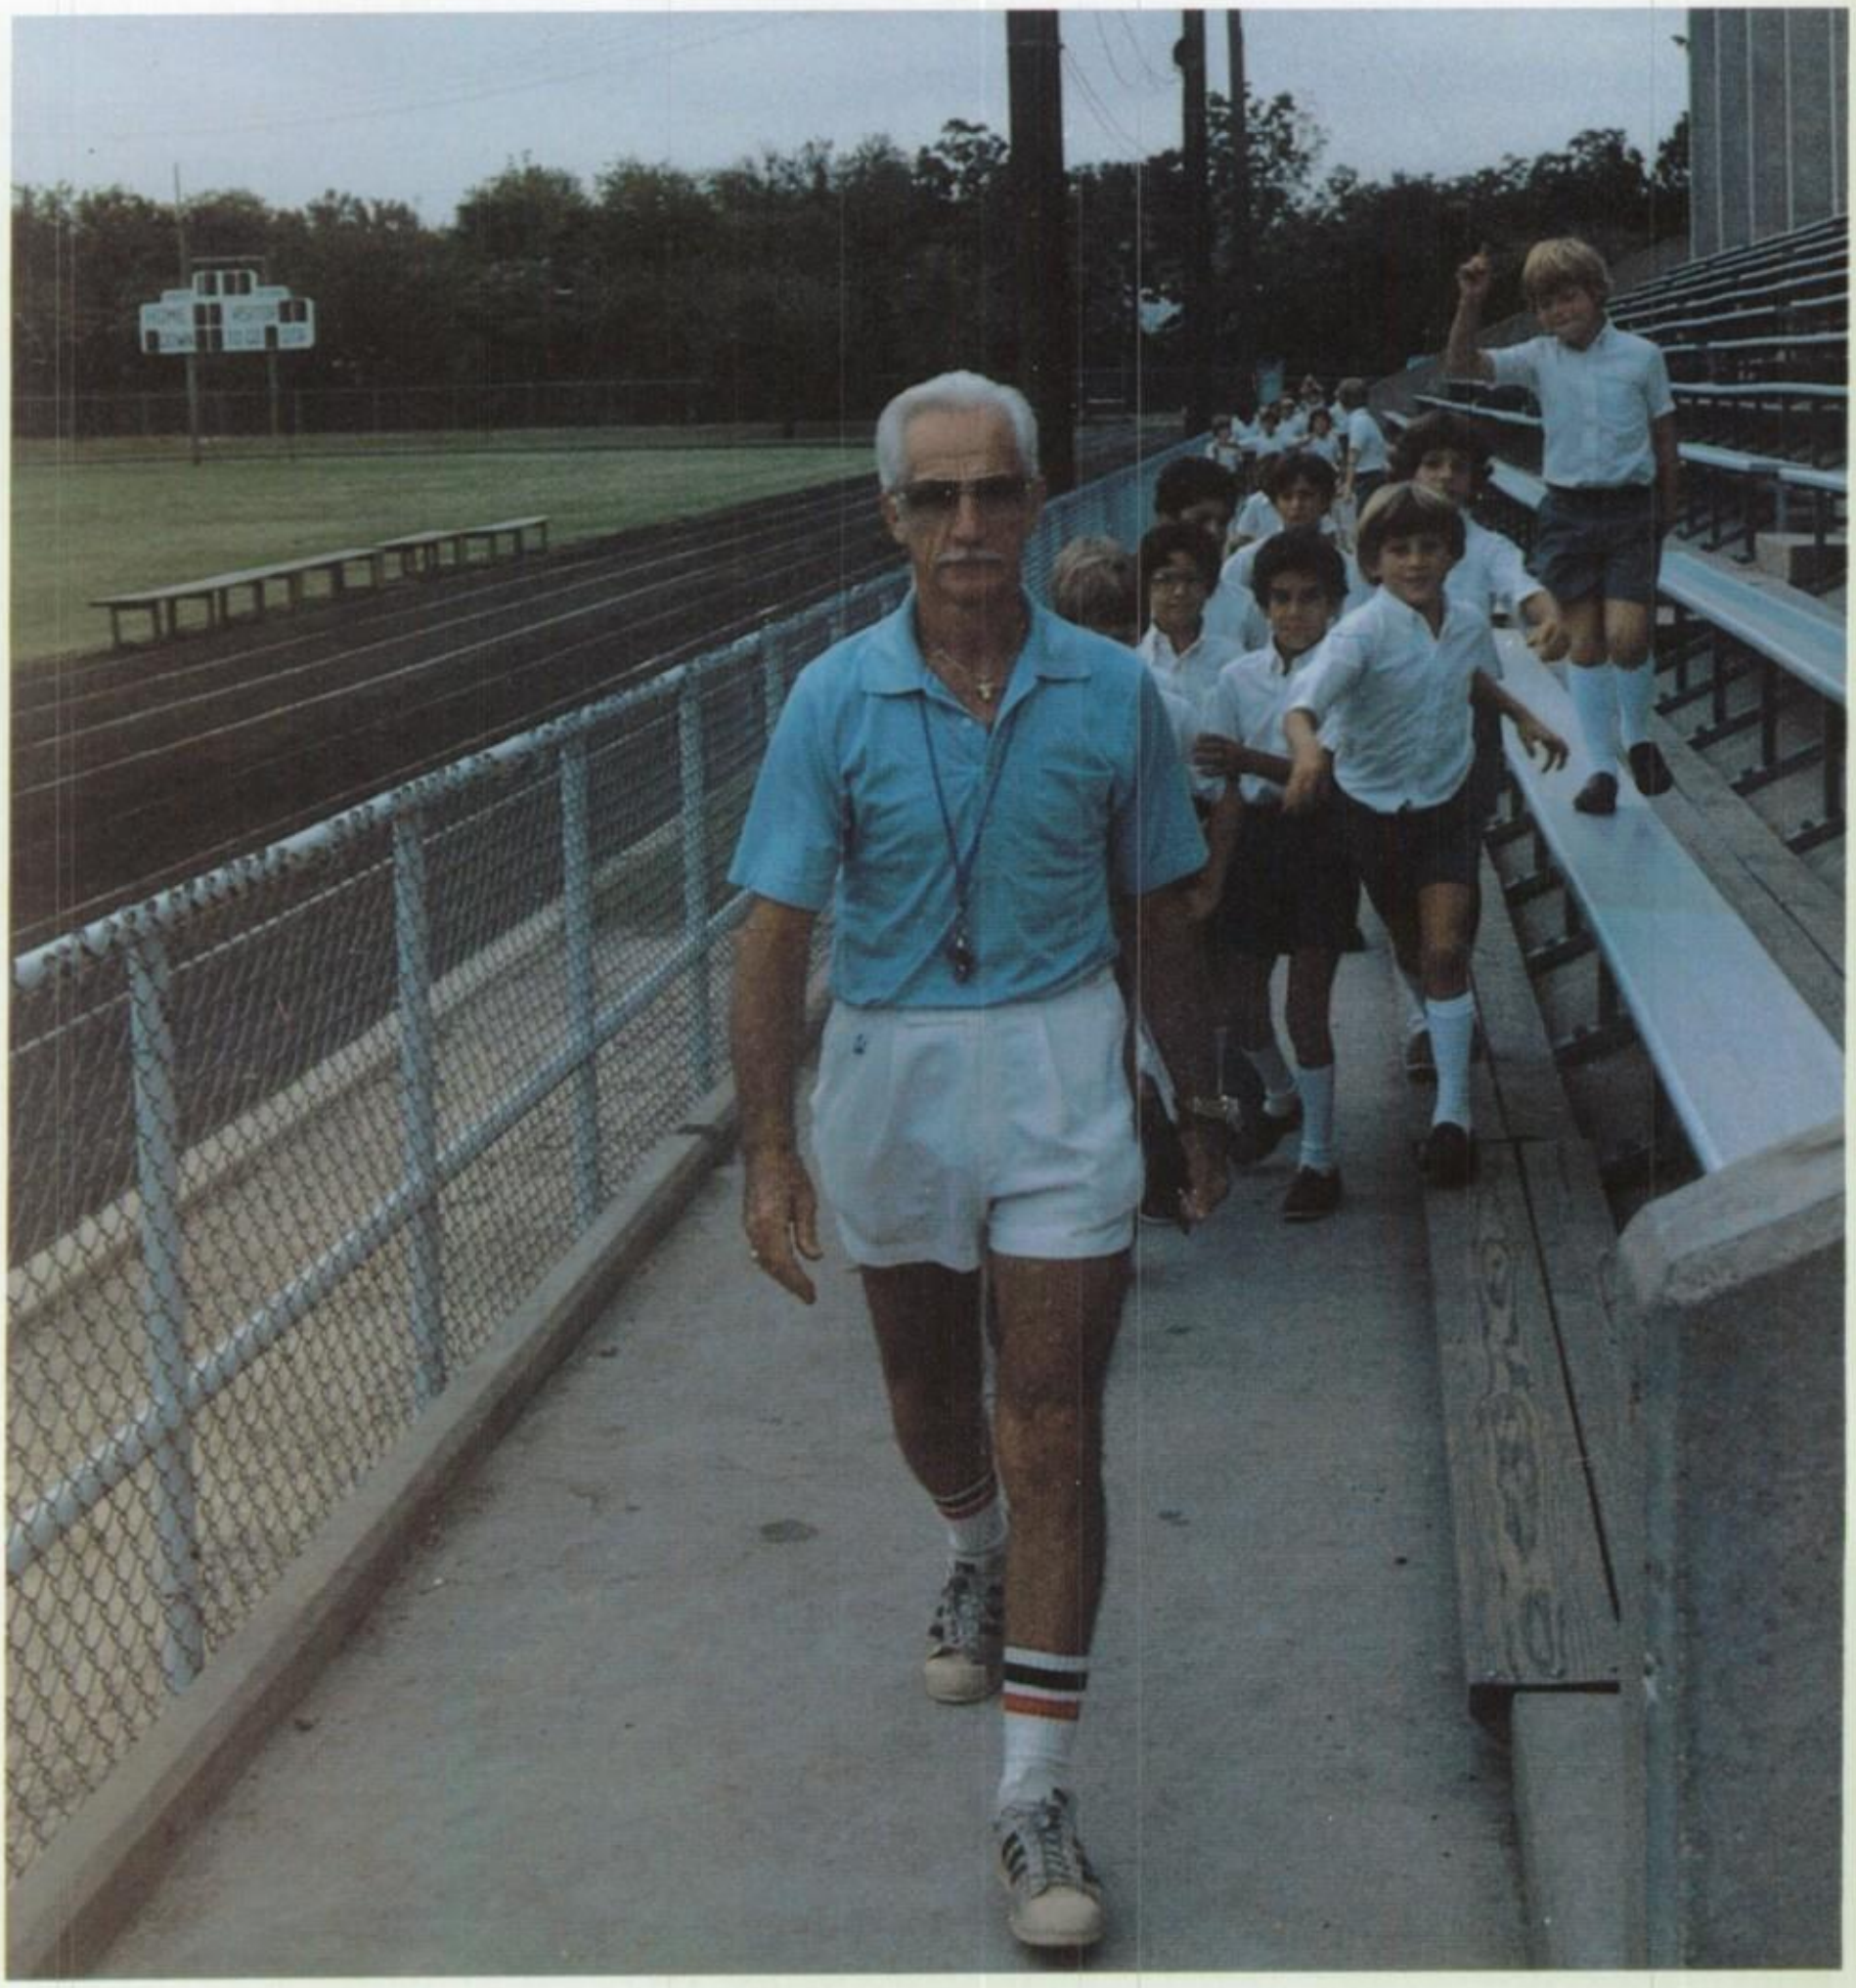
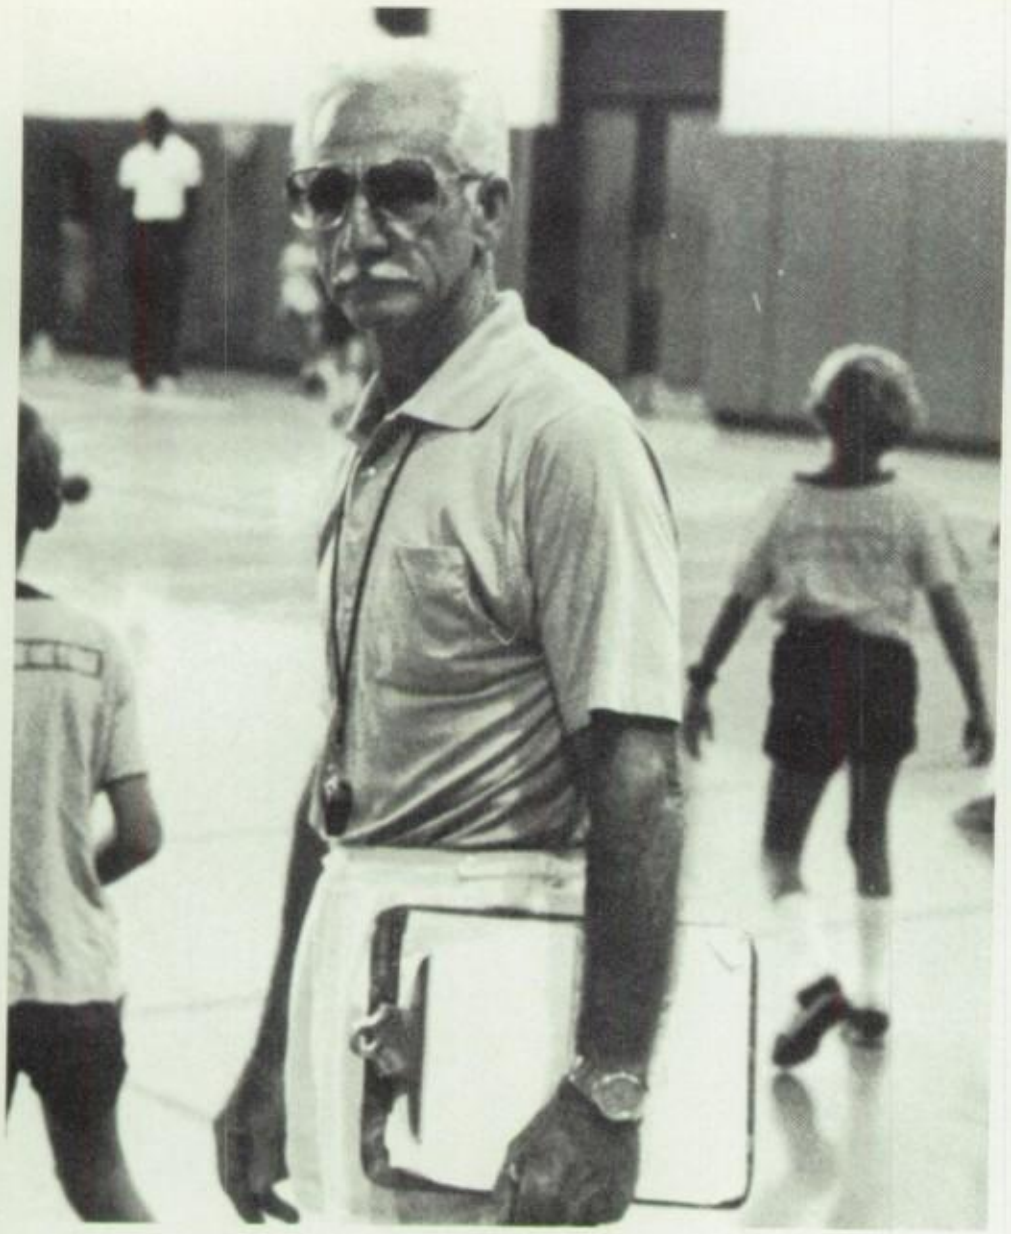
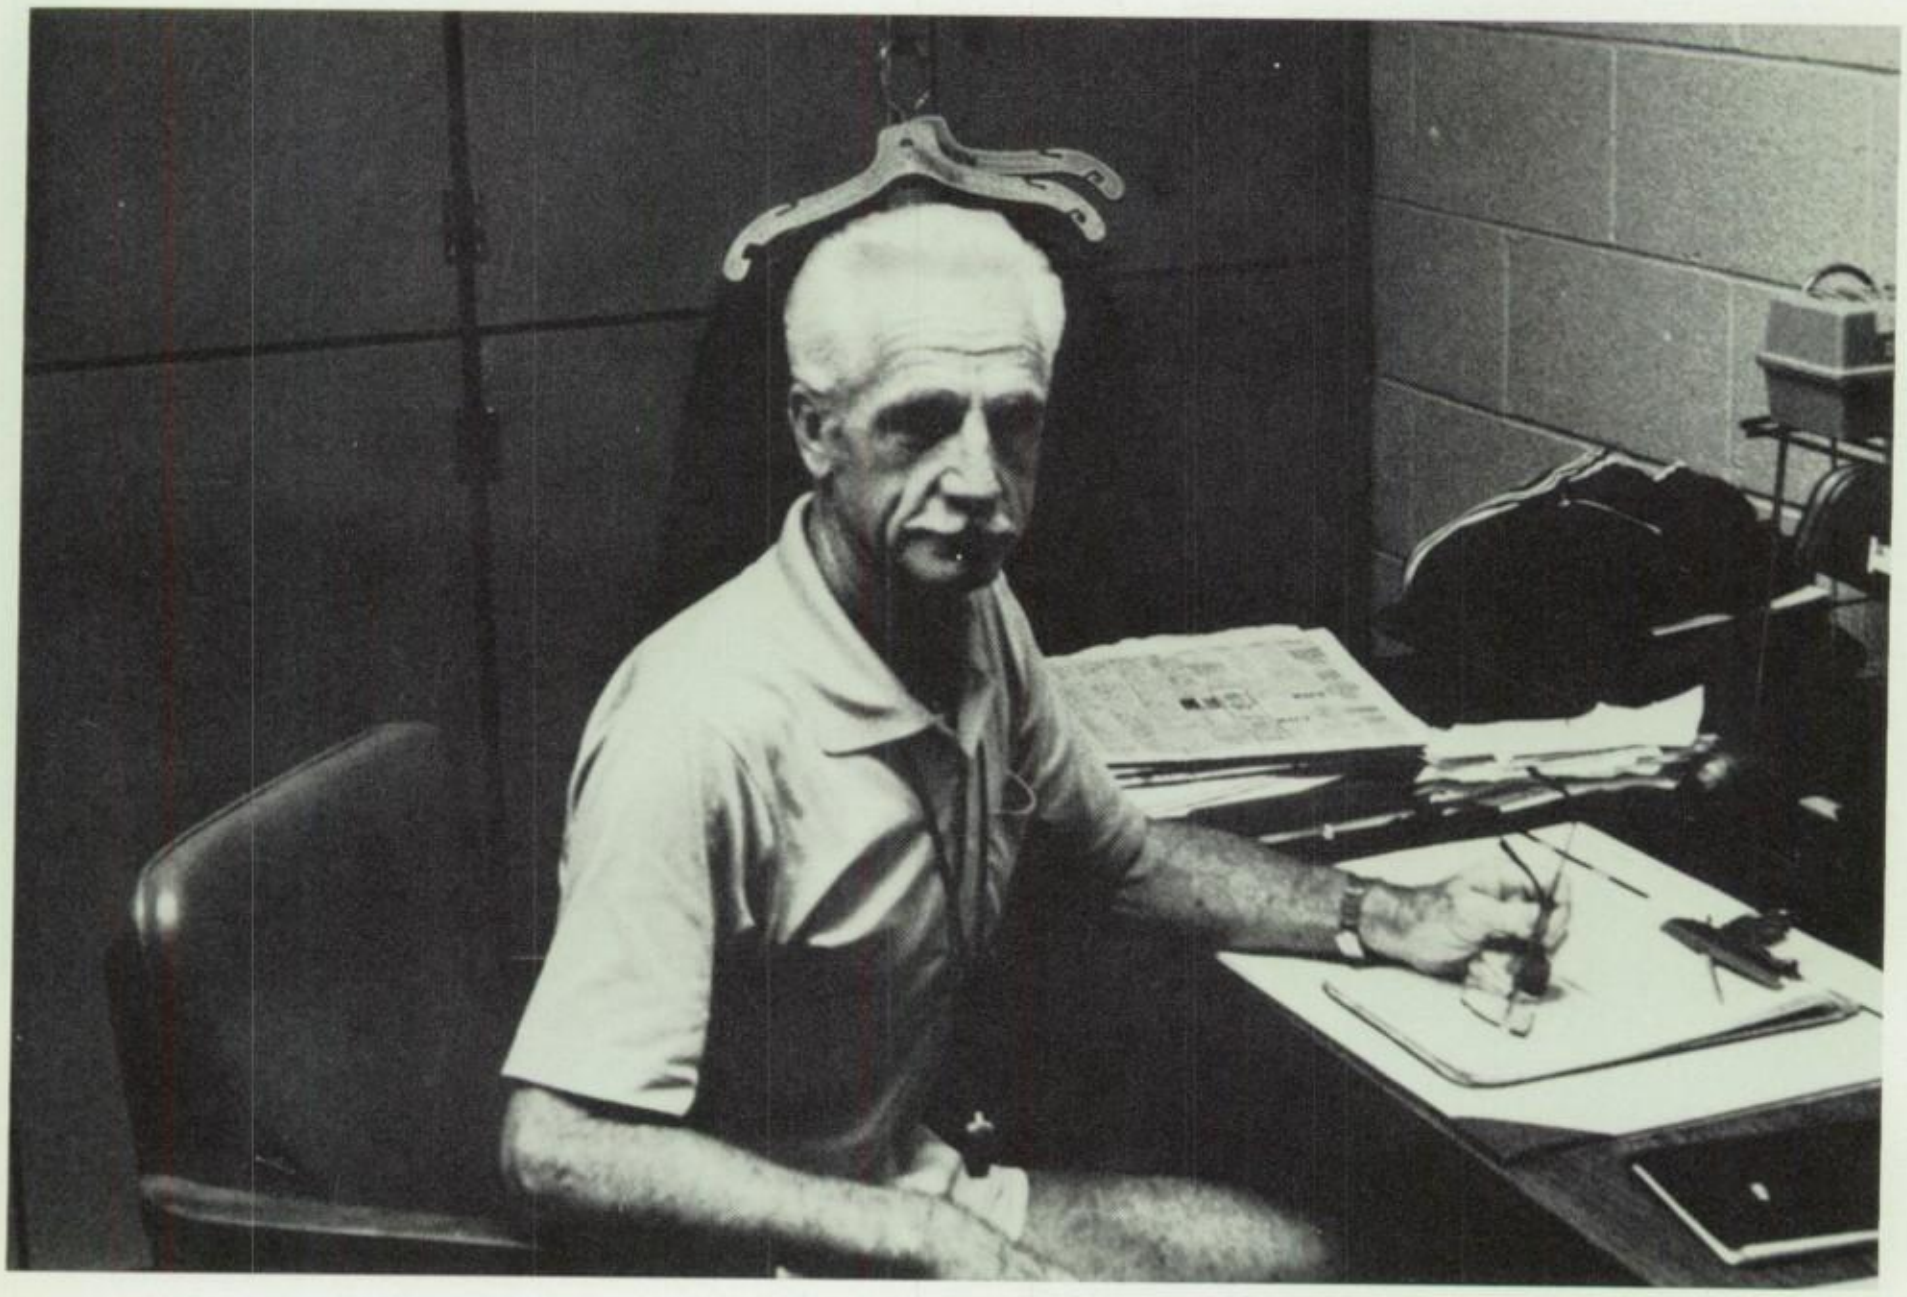
1982 Dedication



Monsieur Daniel P. Nevot

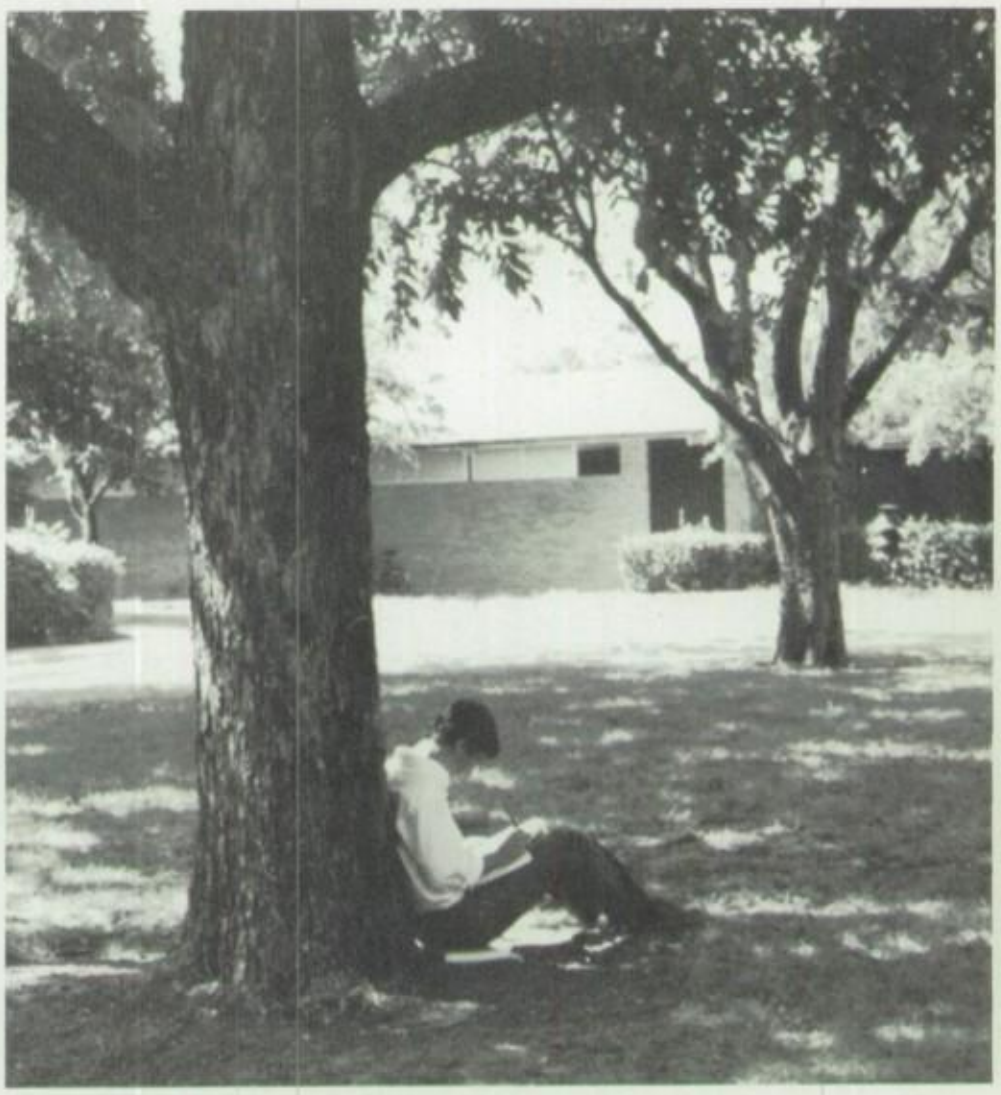


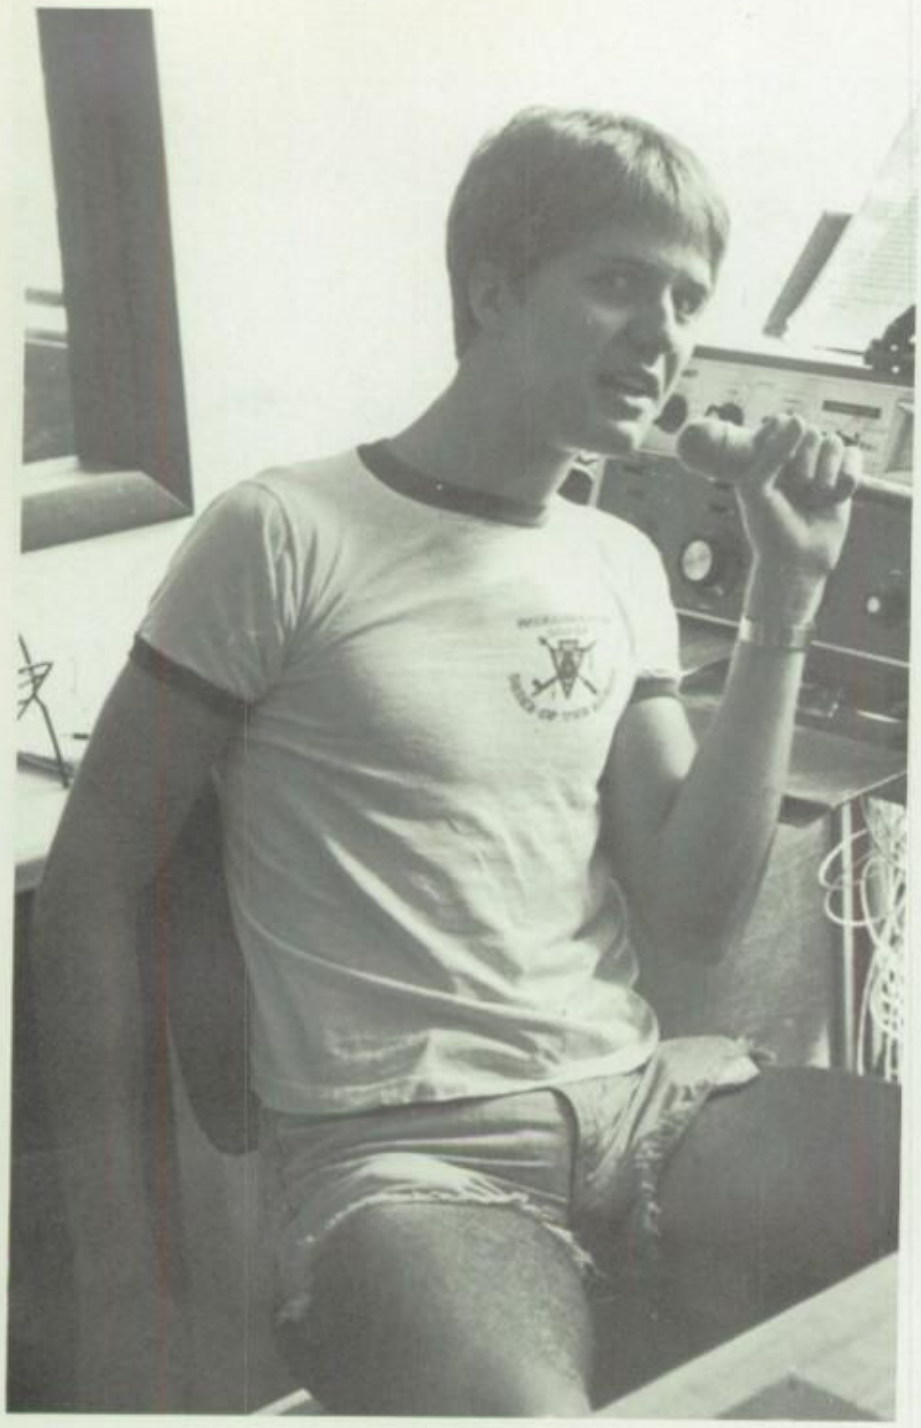
With the utmost respect and dedication, we, the class of 1982, dedicate this year's Marksmen to Mr. Daniel P. Nevot. He came to St. Mark's in 1964 and has since touched the entire community with his warmth, humor, and dedication. For up to twelve years members of this year's senior class have been under his guidance in areas as diverse as general physical education and fencing, and we sincerely appreciate his efforts on our behalf.

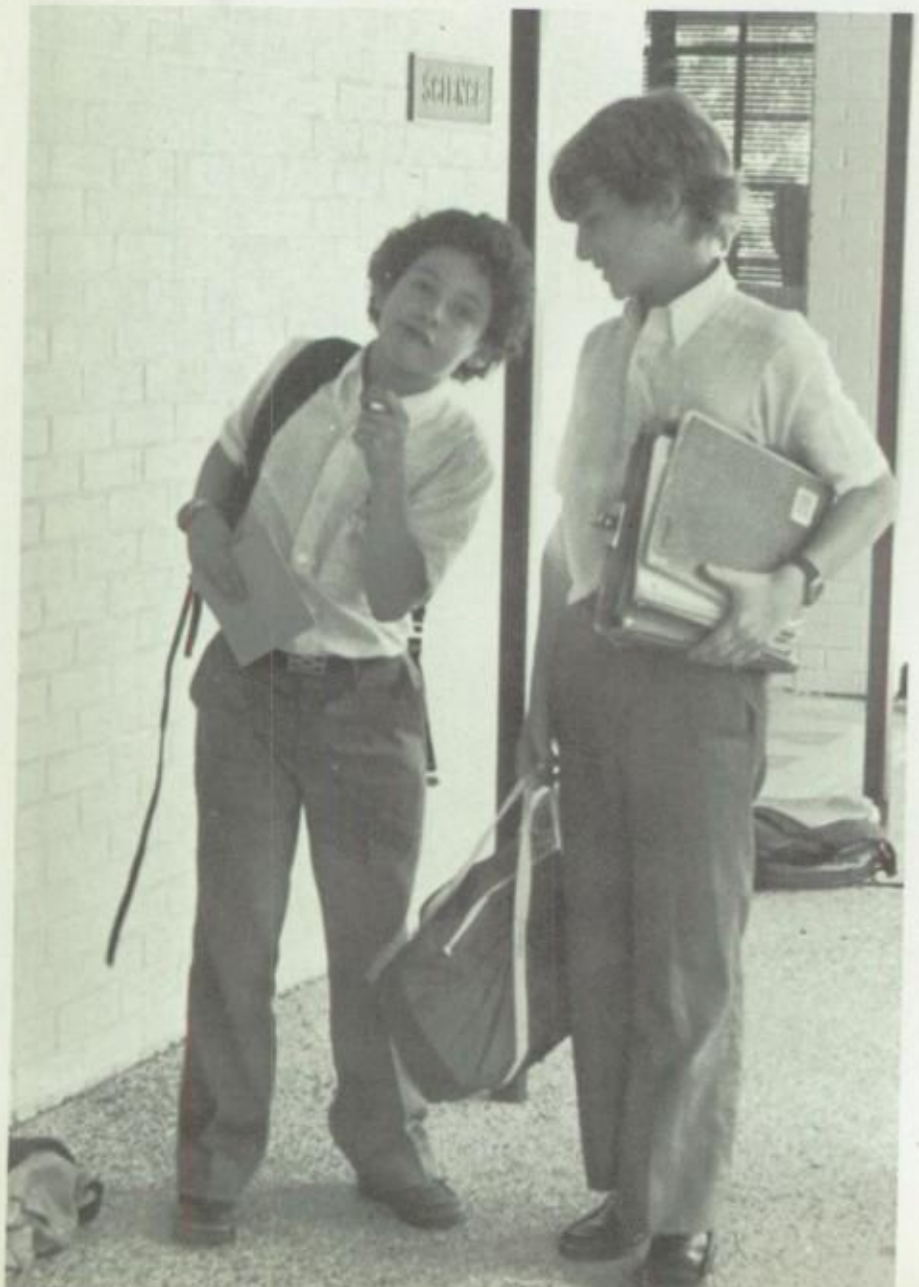


No man's knowledge here can go beyond experience.

— John Locke

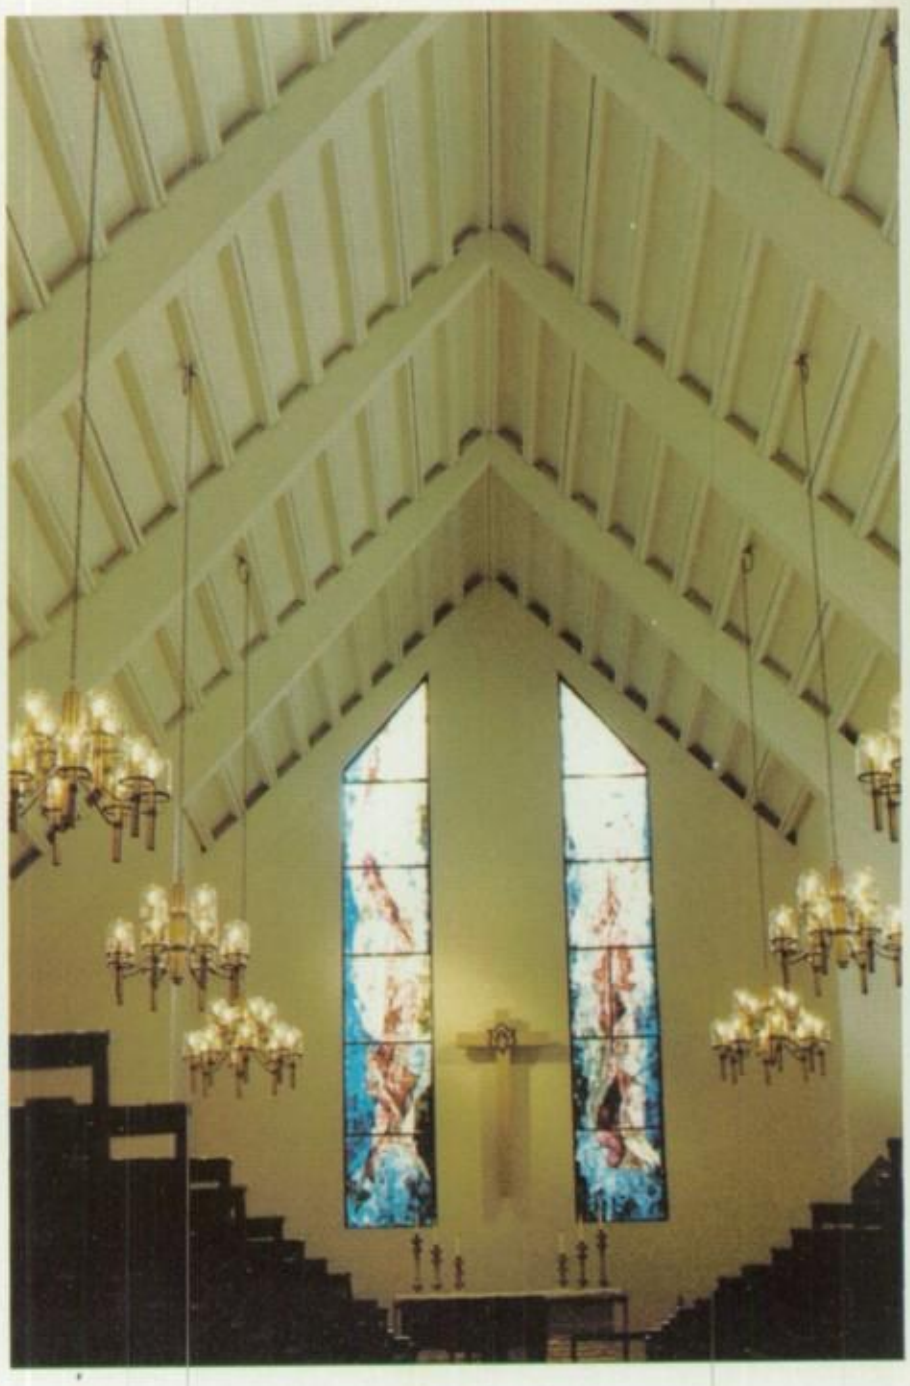






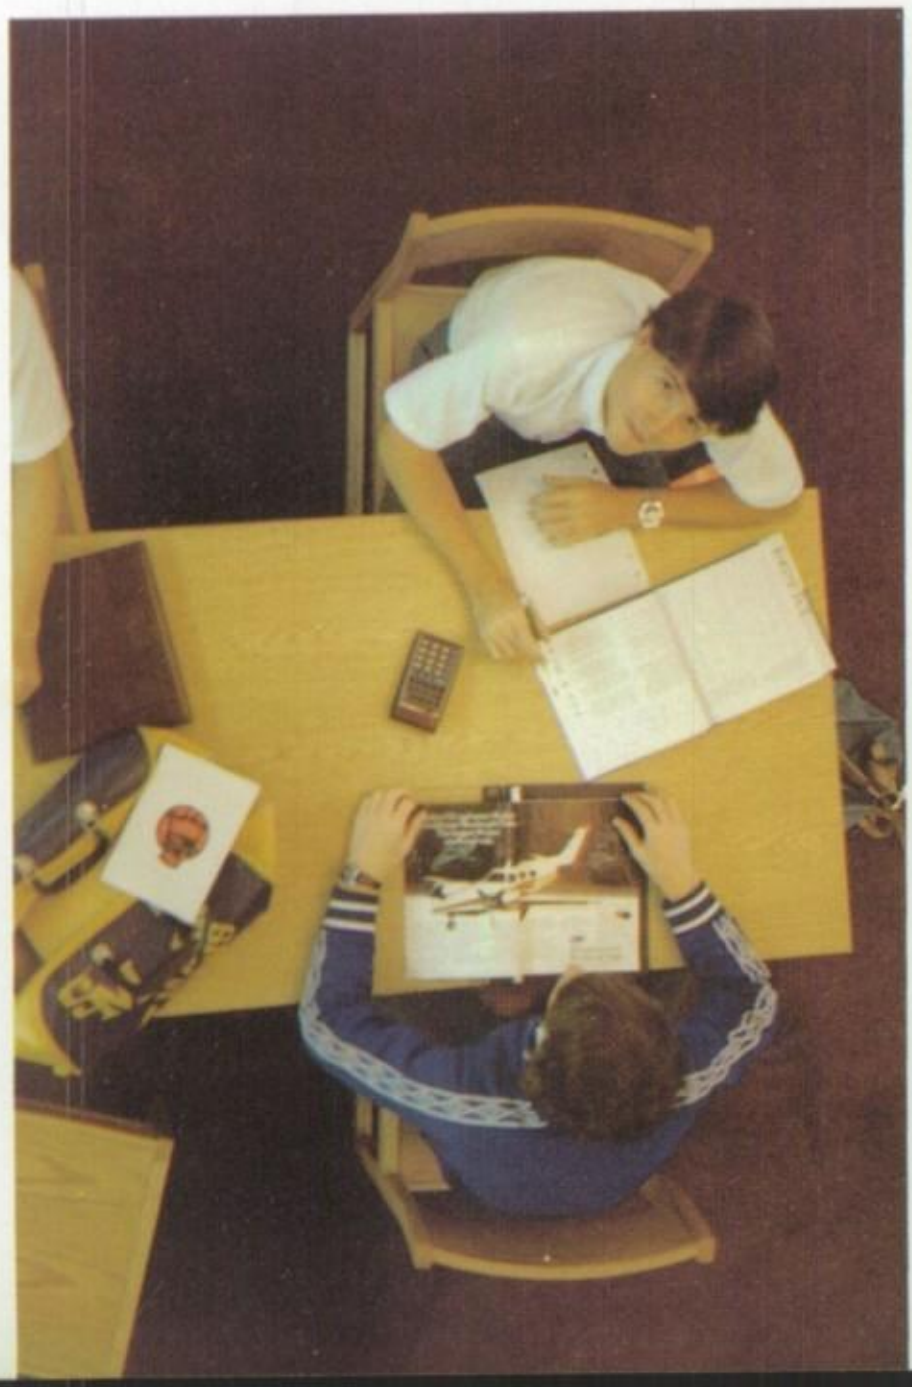
I only know two sorts of boys. Mealy boys and beef-faced boys.

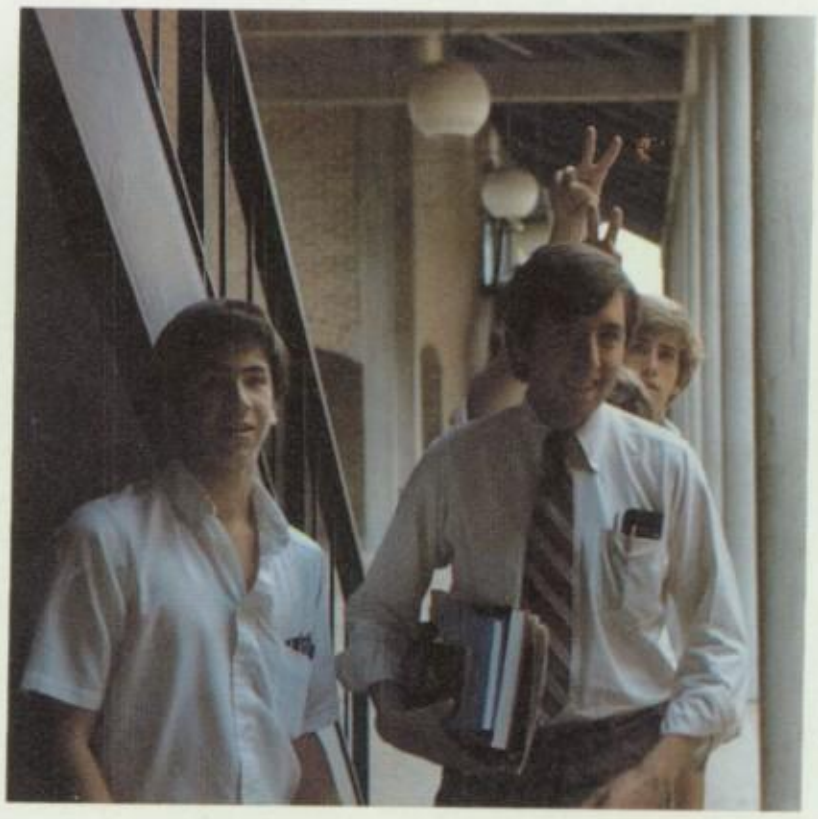
— Charles Dickens

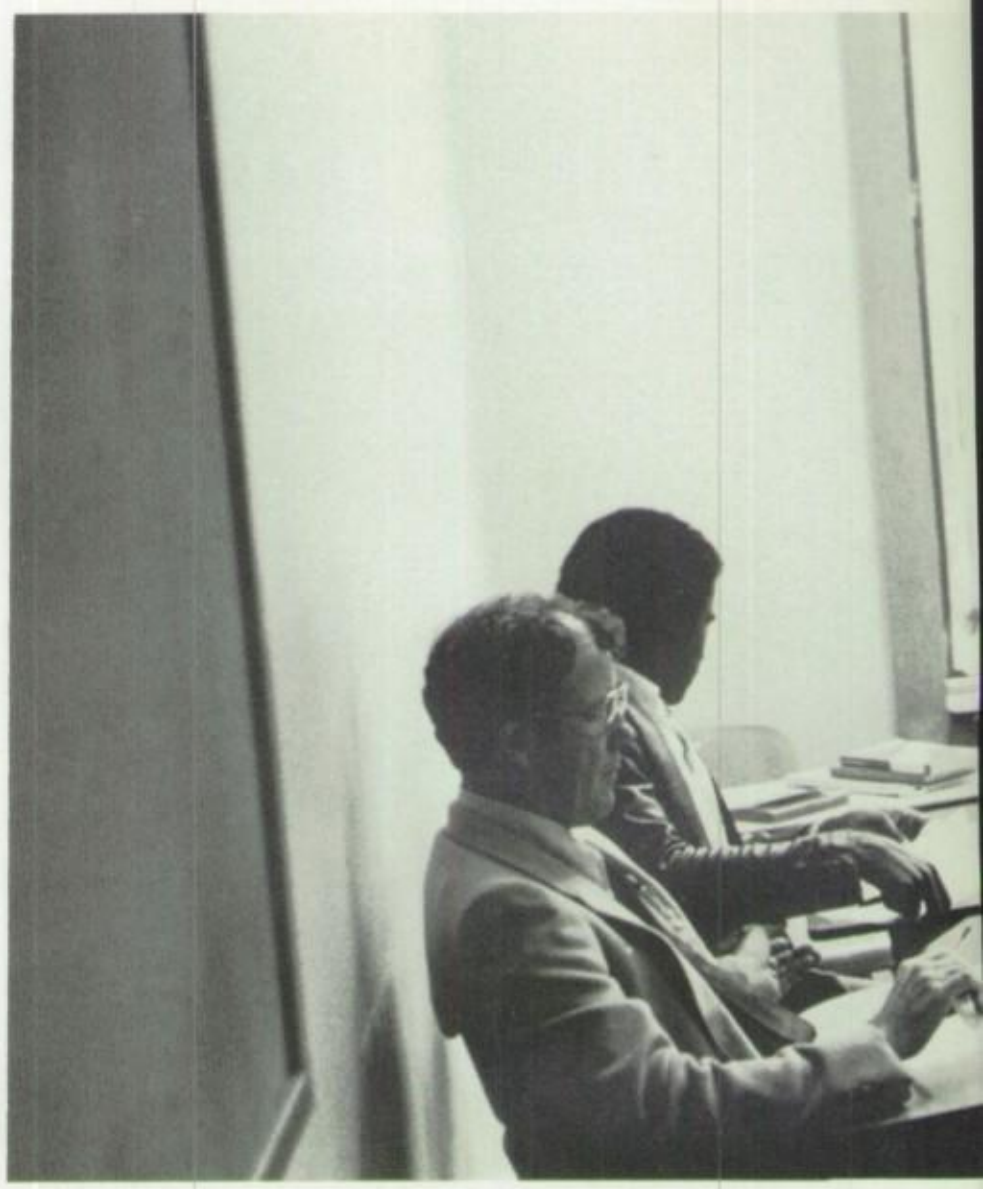


Education, n. That which discloses to the wise and disguises from the foolish their lack of understanding.

— Ambrose Bierce

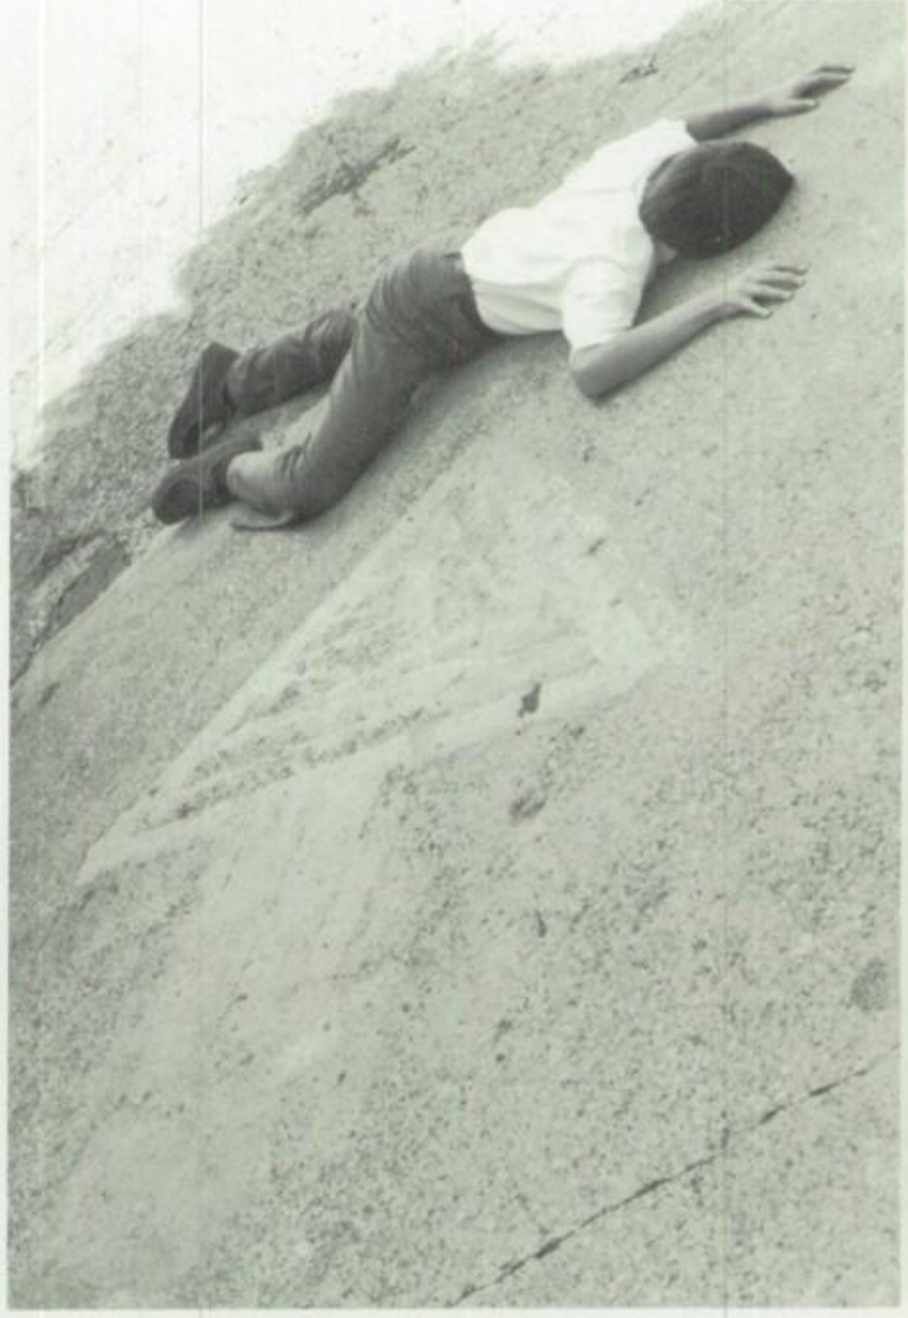






"Reeling and Writhing to begin with," the Mock Turtle replied, "and the different branches of Arithmetic — Ambition, Distraction, Uglification, and Derision."

— Lewis Carroll



I have never let my schooling interfere with my education.

— Mark Twain

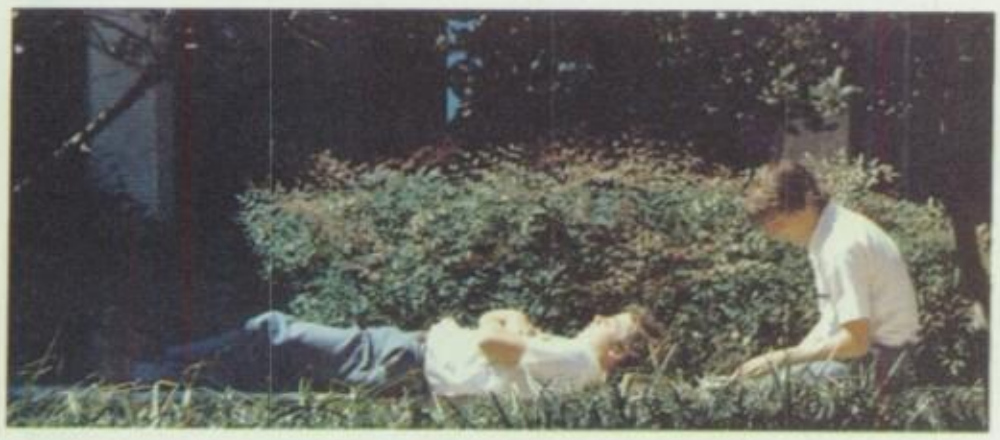
That student life is more intellectual, and perhaps more comfortable, does not obscure the fact that the fundamental qualities of life on the campus reflect the habits of society at large.

— The Port Huron Statement



It was a terrible school, no matter how you looked at it. I like to be somewhere at least where you can see a few girls around once in a while, even if they're only scratching their arms or blowing their noses or even just giggling or something.
— Holden Caulfield

Living in the limelight, the universal dream for those who wish to seem. Those who wish to be must put aside the alienation, get on with the fascination, the real relation, the underlying theme.
Neil Peart

There are those who think that life is nothing left to chance, they host the holy holies to direct their aimless plans. There are those who think that they've been dealt a loving hand, they were born in Lotus land. You can choose a ready guide in some celestial voice if you choose not to decide, you should have made a choice. You can choose from phantom fears and kindness that can kill, I will choose a path that's clear, I will choose freewill.

Cast in this unlikely role,
Ill-equipped to act
With insufficient tact
One must put up barriers
To keep oneself intact . . .

Living in a fisheye lens
Caught in the camera eye
I have no heart to lie
I can't pretend a stranger
Is a long-awaited friend

All the world's indeed a stage
And we are merely players
Performers and portrayers
Each another's audience
Outside the gilded cage.
Rush

Dear Mom and Dad,
Thanks for understanding.

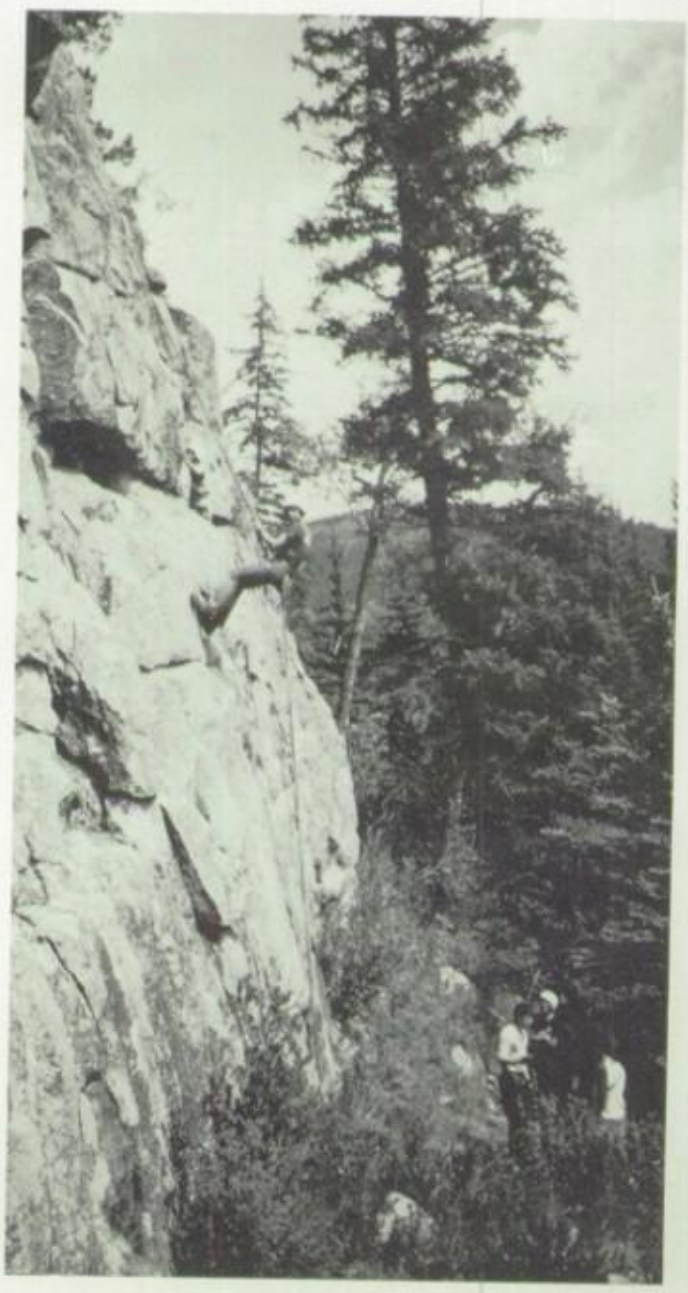
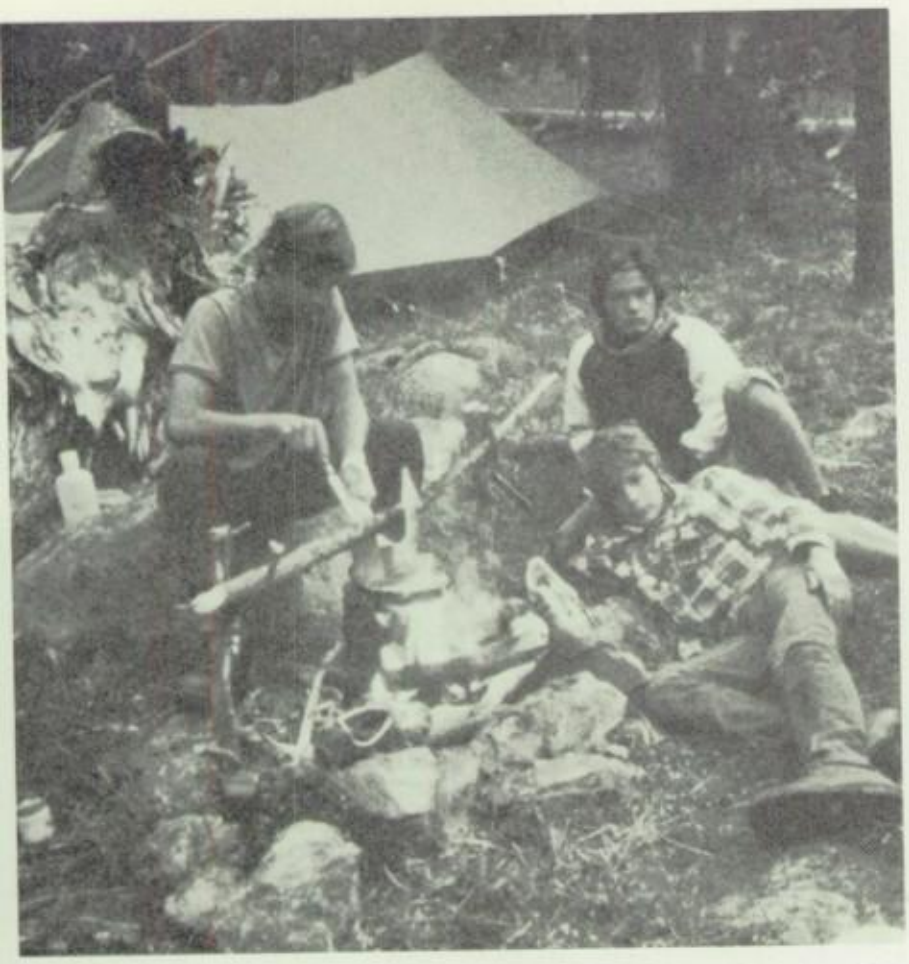
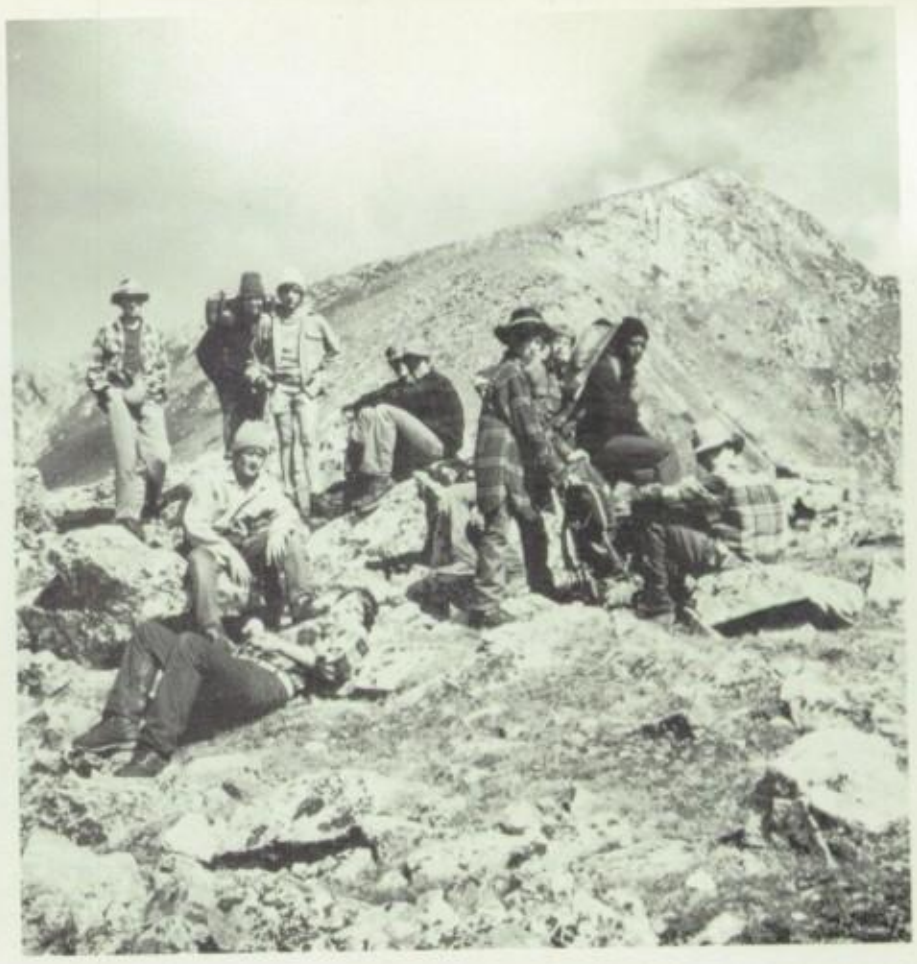
In late August the class of 1985 participated in the annual freshman wilderness trip to the mountains of northern New Mexico. The trip is designed to foster class unity and a greater appreciation for the outdoors. The trip began with a three day orientation at school to outfit the campers and to give them instruction in camping skills and backwood's etiquette. Instead of the whole class departing together, the freshmen divided alphabetically into two groups. As the first group departed on the bus back to Big D, the second group started their nine day wilderness experience. The students hiked, rock climbed, and participated in a twenty-four hour solo. After a long bus ride, the trip ended with the de-issuing back at St. Mark's.



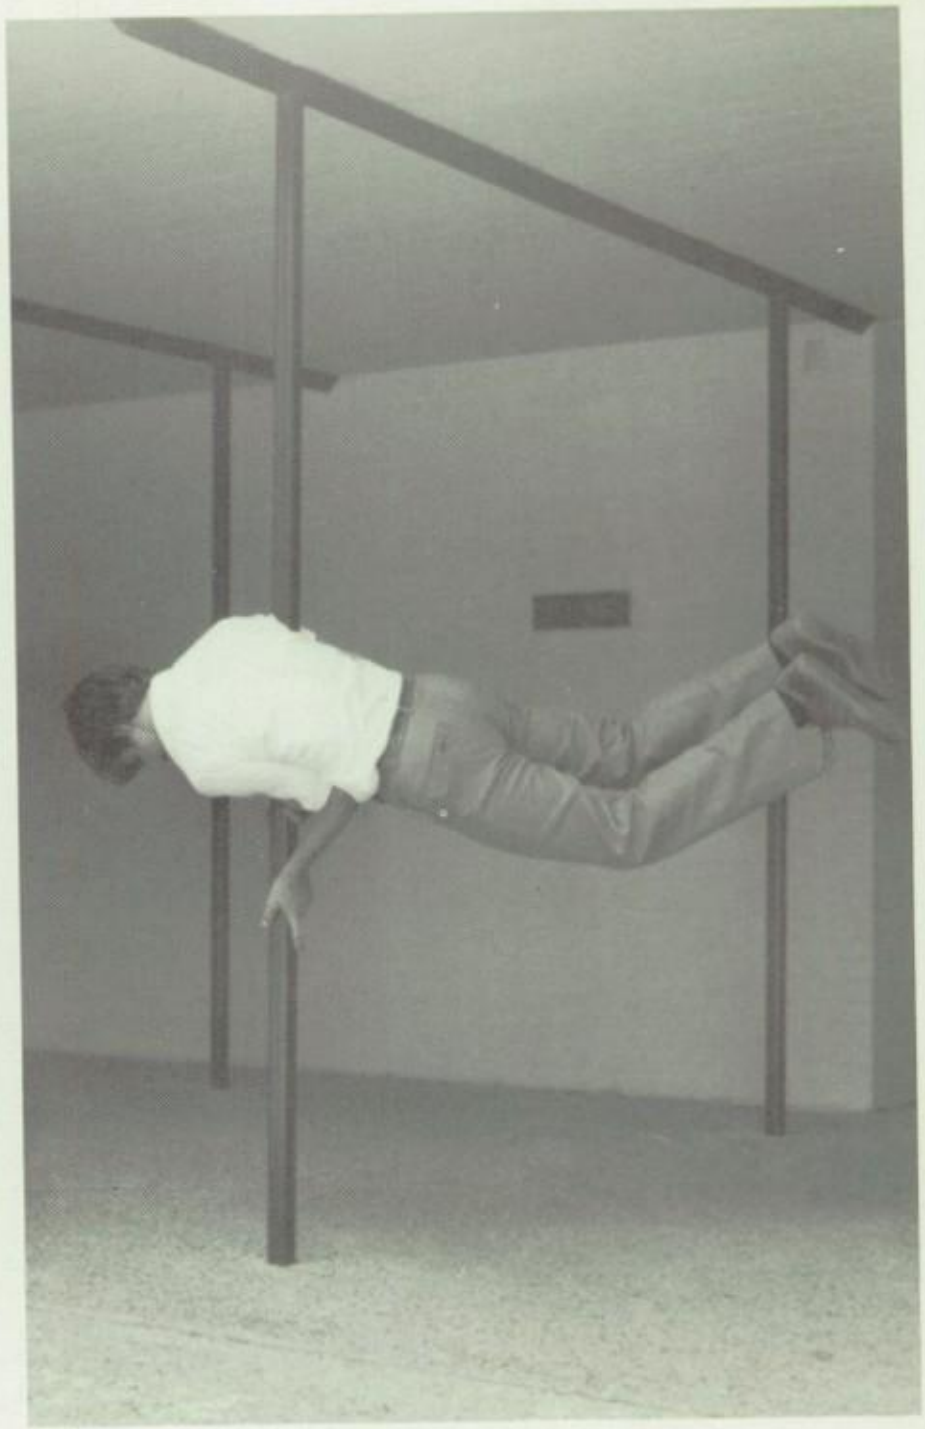




LORD, DON'T FORSAKE US—WE'RE HEADIN' FOR

Peek-A-Boo

What are you hiding?

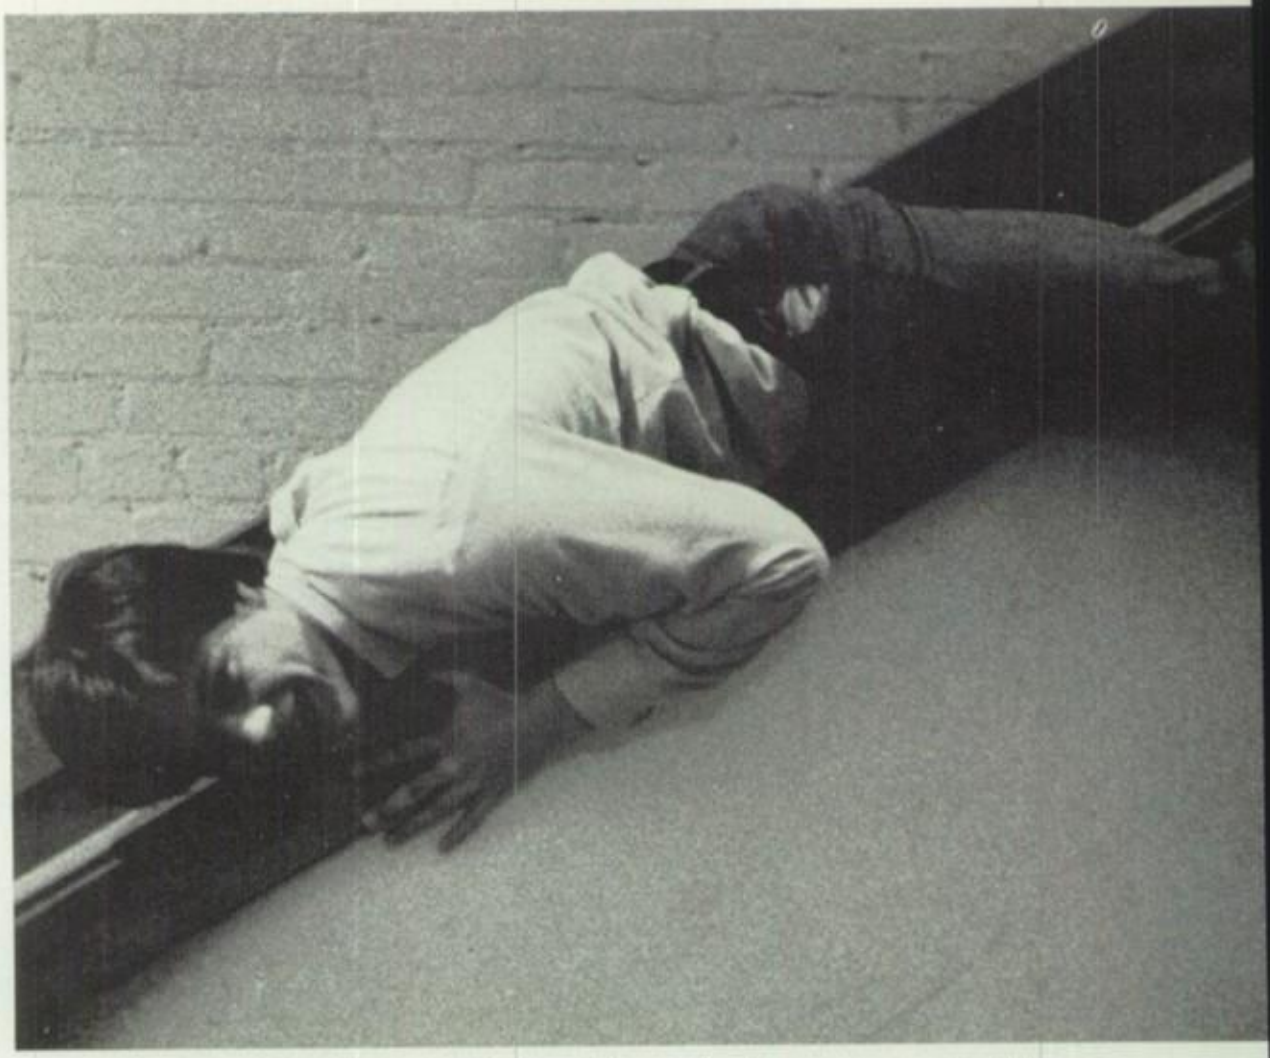


The judges score it an 8.5.

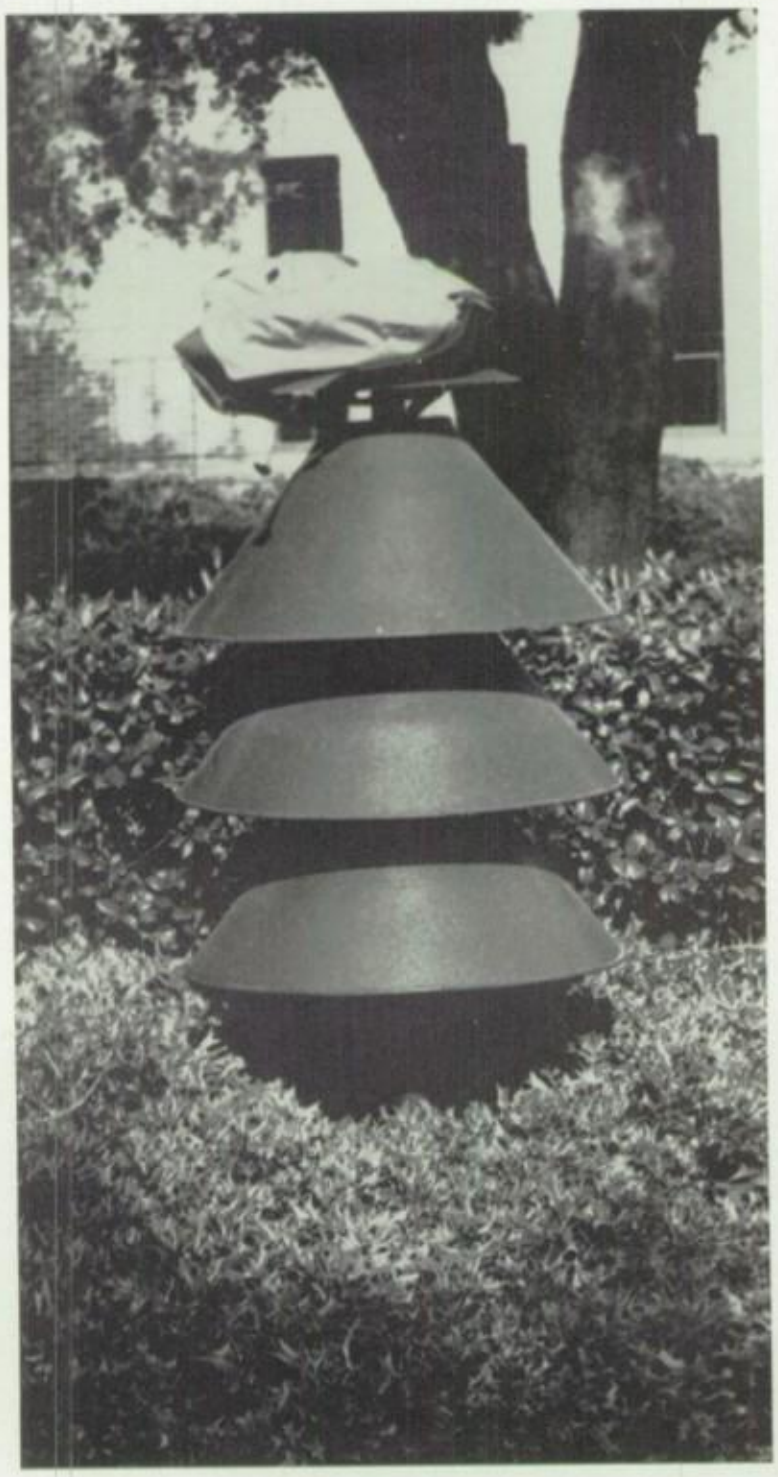
No Polo, please!

Ham it up, guys!

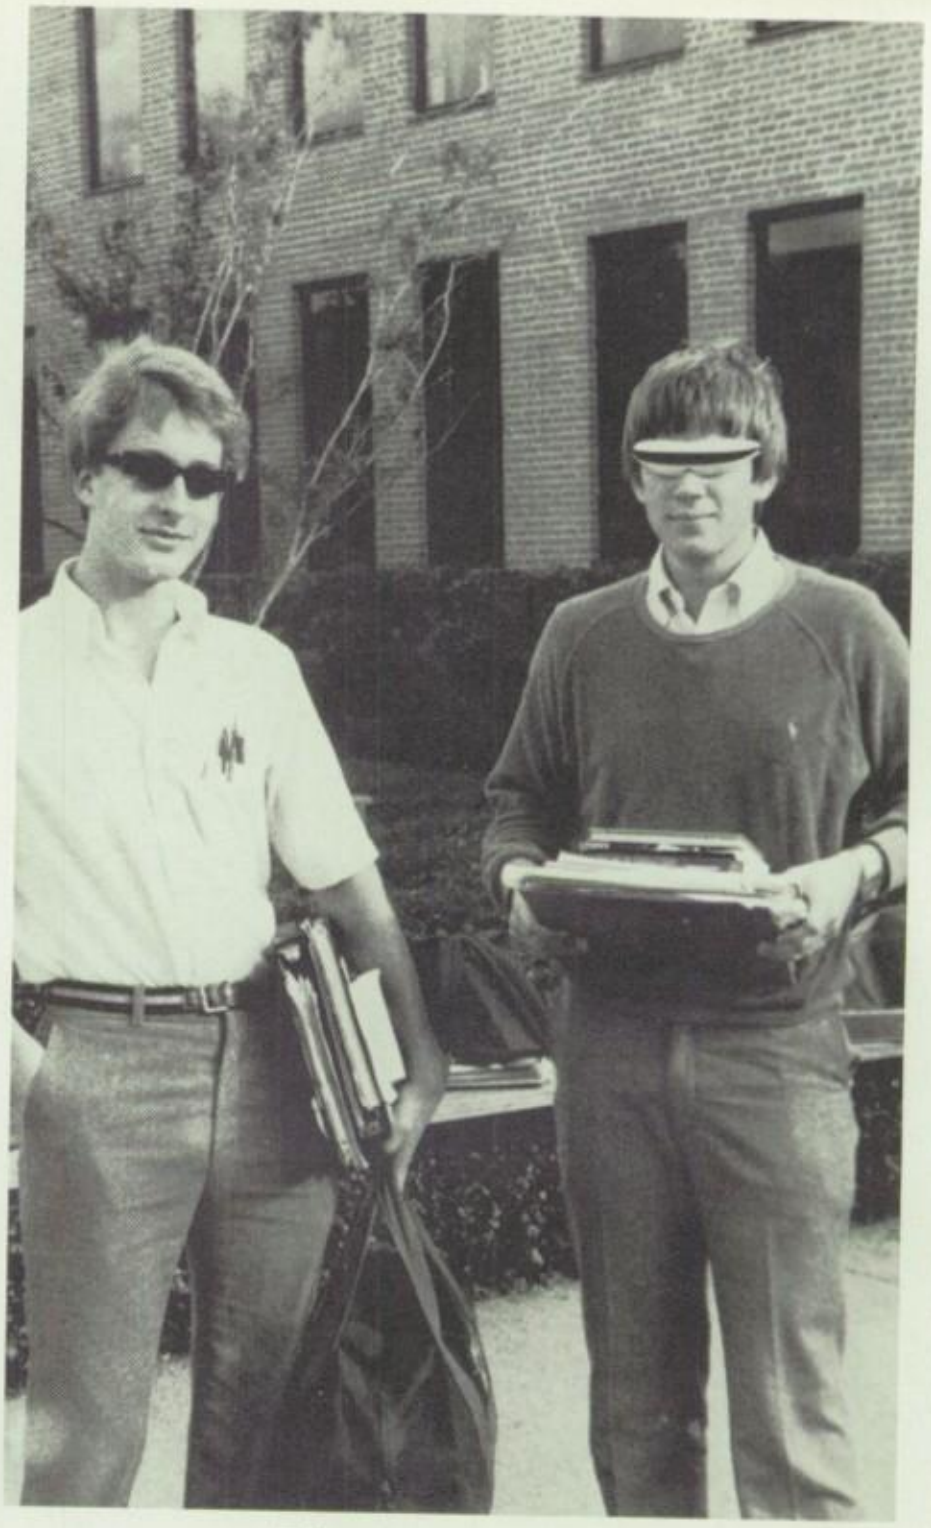
I never get no respect!



"Can't you walk down the stairs like everyone else?"



But ma'am, it's still alive.



Take me to your leader!

It came from the depths.

Did you get it, killer?

More than books and buildings, it is people who make St. Mark's the unique place it is. I find myself continually challenged by my students to learn more so I can try and teach more. Some of my most enjoyable classes have been those where students disagreed with my ideas in discussion. From this intellectual give and take comes real learning — for student and teacher.

There is a tendency in most people — maybe especially in schools — to focus on narrow topics, to develop narrow points of view. A great strength of St. Mark's is the willingness of most faculty and students to try to break out of that mold: to look at life, studies, whatever, from the broadest perspective.

Activities

Amateur Radio Club

The 1981-1982 Amateur Radio Club, under faculty sponsor John Stutsman, continued to broadcast and receive on a world-wide basis. The members of WD5FLO continued to try to contact as many foreign countries as possible. They also tuned the school's two antennae to increase their efficiency in receiving and broadcasting. Club member Michael Egues stated, "Amateur radio offers an invaluable experience in both electronics and world affairs."

Astronomy Club

The Astronomy Club, under the new direction of faculty sponsor Steve Seay, put on numerous planetarium shows for the general public, in addition to using the observatory. The club utilized the telescope and observatory facilities in January for deep sky photography. They met weekly under the student direction of President Rick Baker and Vice President Keith Goodnight. Commenting on the new direction of the club, Baker stated, "Whereas in past years the club's emphasis and energies were spent on the Halloween, Christmas, and Spring shows, this year the club increased the use of the facilities by concentrating solely on astronomy and thus increasing its usefulness to the community."

Chemical Dependency

Under the direction of school nurse Elva Eichenwald and senior Michael Jewell, the Chemical Dependency program continued to educate the fifth and seventh graders about alcoholism and drug addiction. The program was established three years ago and is designed to present the facts about drug usage. Jewell commented, "The goal of the program is to allow the student to make an informed decision without being affected adversely by peer pressure." Jewell also pursued the idea of establishing a permanent C.P.R. program at St. Mark's that would be taught through the Chemical Dependency program.

Over twenty seniors and juniors participated in the Pershing Tutorial program. Headed by senior David Genecov, the tutorial aided students from the John J. Pershing elementary school who needed outside help in such subjects as English and math. Genecov described the program as being rewarding both to the student and to the St. Mark's tutor. The tutors introduced their students in the Upper School Assembly, in addition to inviting them to lunch in the school cafeteria.

All ethics . . . rest upon a single premise: that the individual is a part of a community of interdependent parts . . . the land ethic simply enlarges the boundaries of the community to include soils, waters, plants, and animals, or collectively: the land . . . In short, a land ethic changes the role of Homo Sapiens from conqueror of the land community to plain member and citizen of it. It implies respect for his fellow members, and also respect for the community as such . . . We must quit thinking about decent land-use as solely an economic problem . . . A thing is right when it tends to preserve the integrity, stability, and beauty of the biotic community.

— Aldo Leopold

Hunting and Fishing Club

The Hunting and Fishing Club, under the leadership of faculty sponsor Roger West and President David Genecov, sponsored various hunting and fishing expeditions to area lakes and reserves for "sportsmen" in the St. Mark's community. Meeting weekly, the club dedicated itself to learning new methods of killing while also placing an emphasis on educating its members on how to use equipment properly and safely.

International Club

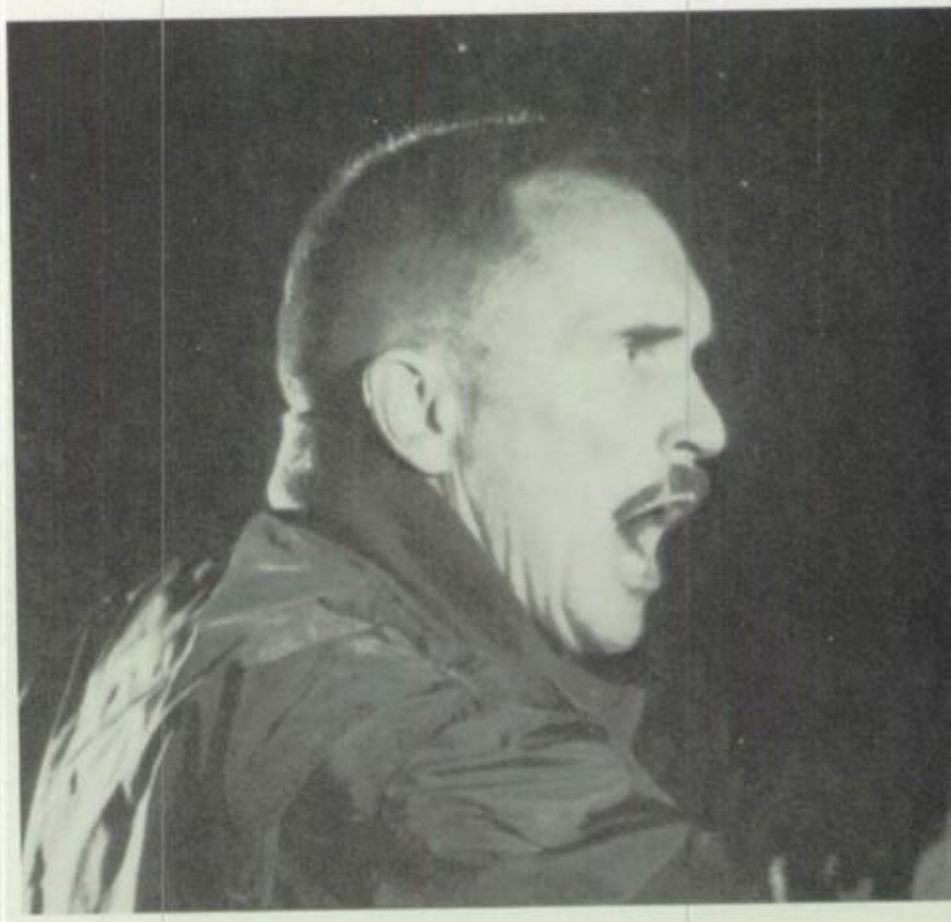
The International Club, under faculty sponsor Peggy Beauvois and President Kent Hercules, continued its support of the American Field Service and the Experiment in International Living, while also holding International Day December 8 and presenting various assemblies during the year. The club raised money through a bake sale and by sponsoring the fudge-o-grams. This year's A.F.S. student, Ola Henriksson, from Perstorp, Sweden, commented, "Ett AFS- år är en utmarkt upplevelse då man lär både om sig själu och andra vilket medför en djupare förståele för människor från andra delar av världen."

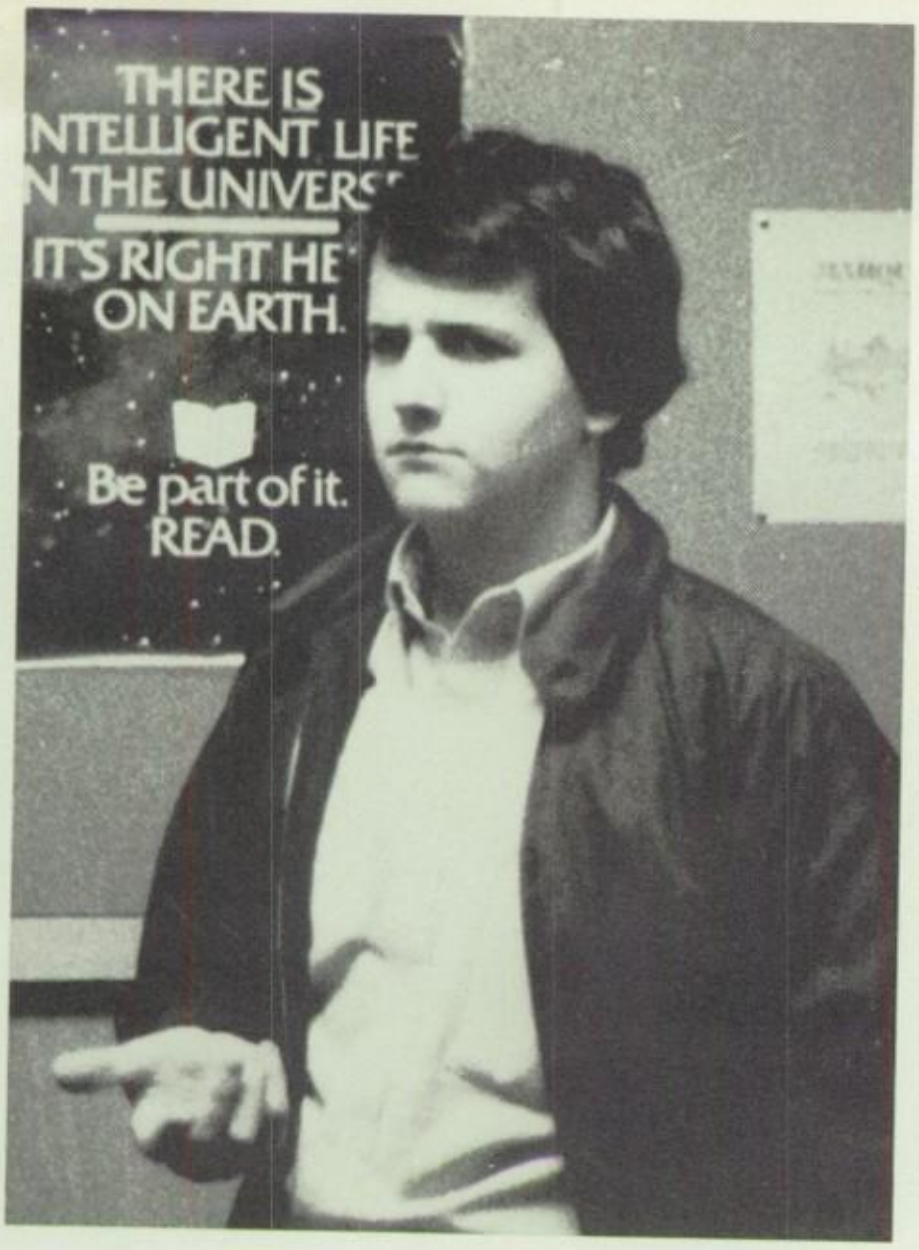
Sherpas

The Sherpa program replaced the Outing Club this year. The Sherpas, the rugged members of the St. Mark's community, engaged in canoeing, rock-climbing, and camping trips throughout the southwest to such places as the Kiamichi mountains of southern Oklahoma and Enchanted Rock in central Texas. The Sherpas, under the leadership of faculty sponsor Peter Lutken and student president Eric Reeves, also organized and supervised the middle school hikes and campouts, along with guiding the Freshmen through the Pecos Wilderness of New Mexico.

Film Society

This year's Film Society provided many excellent movies which allowed for greater profits this year than in any other previous year. Using a new strategy, faculty sponsor Michael Bennett and president Lee Jamieson gambled on virtually every movie to increase their profits and showed box office hits such as The Great Santini, Airplane, and Breaking Away. Commented Jamieson, "The Film Society gained more respect this year because of the good movies shown. Next year's club should continue this trend." The club also sponsored I Saw the Wind, a live concert put on by Bob Jamieson and Mark Thompson.





Debate

As one of the most active and successful competitive squads on campus, the St. Mark's Debate Society continues to grow in both size and quality. Numerous invitations to prestigious tournaments throughout the country and quality performances at these events are indicative of the squad's abilities. Excellent performances at the local, state, and national levels has enabled the Debate Society to capture hundreds of awards. Faculty sponsor and debate coach Paul A. Newman noted, "The key to debate's unique value lies in the fact that traditional academic goals are combined with the interest and enthusiasm found in extracurricular activities."

Assemblies

Organized by Student Council president Andrew Shoup, the bi-weekly morning assemblies presented a number of interesting speakers and topics to the Upper School. Visits by historian Dr. John Conway of Amherst College, Mr. Josiah Bunting, president of Hamden-Sidney College, and Lt. Governor candidate George Strake, highlighted this year's assemblies. In addition to outside members of the community speaking to the Upper School, numerous members of the faculty and student body presented assemblies on a variety of subjects. The assemblies served to widen the students' knowledge and perception of local, national, and international issues.

Book Fair

The 1981-82 Book Fair, under the direction of Mrs. Anne Mullen, earned more than $2700 for the Library Fund. The Fair, held on October 27-29 in the Decherd Performance Hall, offered nearly 5000 publications for sale to the St. Mark's community. The House of Books again provided the books which ranged in subject matter from sports to needlework.

Talent Show

The 1981 Talent Show again featured the best talent in the community. Included in this year's show were David Hudgins and Alex Georges, who sang a Neil Young tune; John Lacey, who sang "You Can't Always Get What You Want"; and the singing group Timmy, Jimmy, and the Retards. Also included were the Frustrates, Statutary Grape, and Mose and the Monotones. All the money and cans earned went to benefit the Canpaign.

Senior-Faculty Picnic

The rain which occurred on Wednesday, October 21, did not dampen the spirits of those who attended the annual Senior-Faculty picnic. Organized by Senior Class President D. J. Wood and senior mothers, the picnic was nevertheless a success with the mothers providing a wholesome, nutritious meal. Although most of the games were cancelled due to the bad weather, Wood commented, "The picnic was successful because it allowed the seniors to talk with the teachers outside of the classroom."

Canpaign

Under the leadership of seniors Paul Allred, Eric Reeves, Spencer Taylor and David A. Wood, the 1981 Canpaign collected over 27,000 cans and over 6300 dollars. This year's Canpaign chairman emphasized 100% participation while they stressed the importance of donating time rather than money. They also encouraged underclassmen and Hockaday participation by holding senior-junior and St. Mark's-Hockaday competition at nightly collections. As in past years, an all day collection was held and netted over 9,000 cans. Mrs. Owens famed cake sold for over 1300 dollars this year. As usual, the canned food and money benefitted five missions in south and east Dallas.

Field Day

Field Day, sponsored by the student councils of St. Mark's and Hockaday, was held on Saturday, November 21. This year's field day featured a field hockey match between the Lion football team and the Hockaday varsity field hockey team. The competition between the upper school classes was won by the juniors. Everyone present participated in tug of war, capture the flag, and moon-ball competitions. Afterwards, the Film Society showed the movie Airplane.

Homecoming

On Saturday, October 31, following the Lion football victory over the Bishop Lynch Friars by a score of 14-7, the student council, headed by Vice-President Denys Slater, put on the annual Homecoming dance. The dance, since it was held on Halloween night, featured a Halloween theme. The parents were organized by Mr. and Mrs. Slater, Olds, and Reeves, who directed the organization of the chaperones and the refreshments. The music was provided by a local hometown favorite, the Molly Maguire's.

Band

Conductor Mario Foster and President Tom Van Schaik once again directed this year's band through a very successful season. The band performed at the annual Winter and Spring Concerts, Lion football games, pep rallies, and also the ISAS art's festival in Houston. The Studio Band, comprised of the most talented musicians, joined the Concert Band at the Spring Concert in presenting traditional jazz pieces. Several members of this year's band also participated in the Talent Show.

Cheerleaders

The 1981-1982 Cheerleaders succeeded in raising school spirit at pep rallies and at Lion football games in the fall. Led by Head Cheerleaders D. A. Wood and Nancy Purse, the cheerleaders offered many original skits which invited greater fan participation at the pep rallies, particularly by the Class of 1982. The cheerleaders attended the S.M.U. Cheerleading Camp in the summer where they won three spirit sticks while developing new cheers and routines.

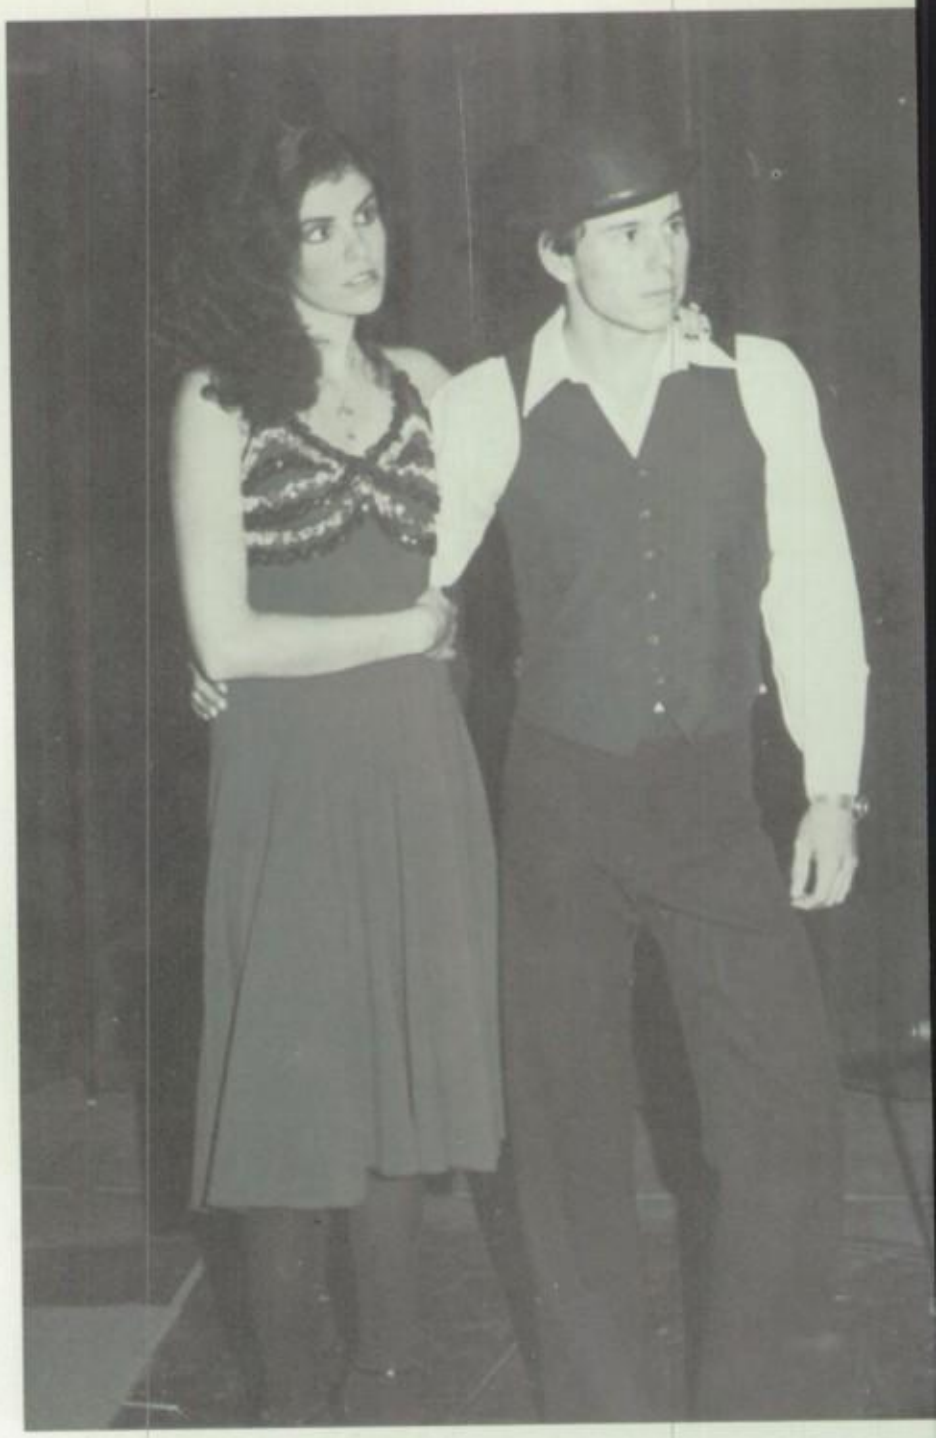
Drama Club

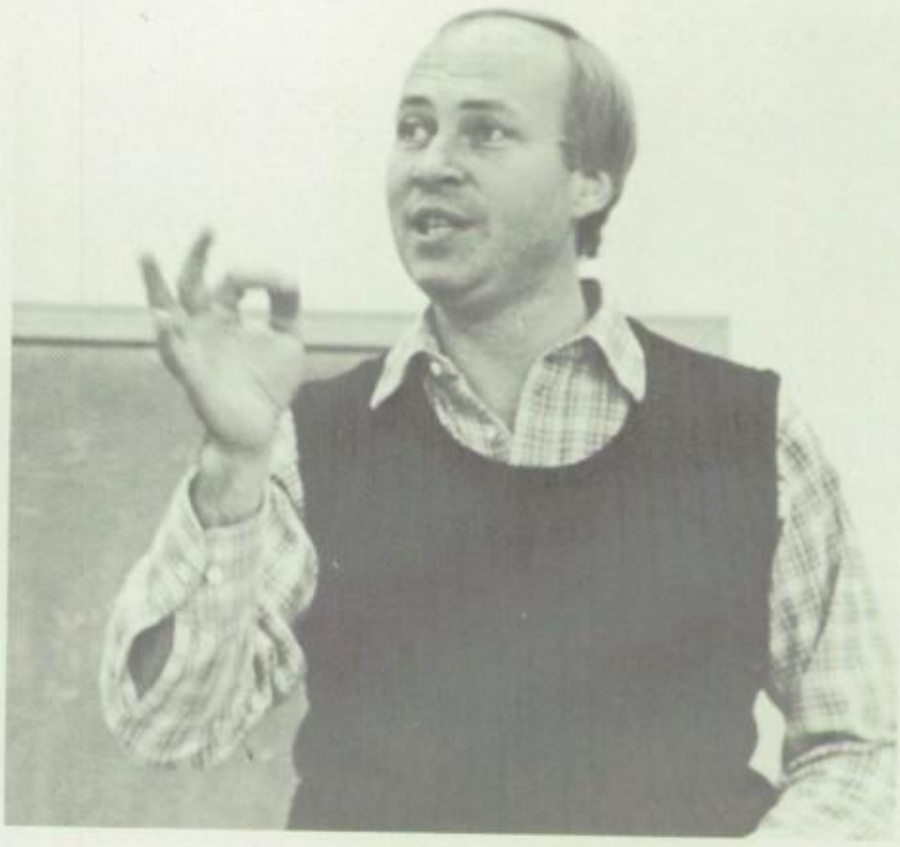
The Drama Club, under the leadership of Mr. Rod Blaydes, and with the help of Hockaday, once again succeeded in staging three productions for the St. Mark's community. The coordinated effort between the drama clubs led to the production of "Dinny and the Witches," the One Act Play Festival in February, and the spring play. Once again, they performed an outtake for the I.S.A.S. fine arts festival in Houston.



Glee Club / Mixed Choir

The St. Mark's Choir and Chorus once again enjoyed a successful year under the direction of Mr. James Livengood. Under the leadership of Head Choristers Rafael Martin and David Morris, the Choir joined with the upper school Chorus led by president Michael Jewell, to perform the monthly Evensong service as well as the 30th annual performance of the Festival of Lessons and Carols.

As in past years, the Chorus joined with Hockaday's Small Ensemble in order to produce a Mixed Choir. The group rehearsed at St. Mark's twice a week in the first semester, then at Hockaday during the second semester. The Mixed Choir performed a series of Madrigals during the first quarter and also participated in caroling in local shopping centers throughout the area during the weeks preceeding Christmas.



Orchestra

The St. Mark's Orchestra once again enjoyed a very successful year under the direction of conductor Yves L'Helgoual'ch and president Kent Hercules. The orchestra played pieces ranging from Francis Pauleuc's "Movements Perpetual" to Hayden's Military Symphony. The orchestra performed two major concerts in the winter and spring while also participating in the Mid-Year recitals.

Student Council

The 1981-1982 Student Council, under the direction of President Andrew Shoup and first year Faculty Sponsor Warren Foxworth, continued to direct the student body through a successful year of activities. This year the council formulated a parking proposal in order to alleviate parking congestion. Meeting weekly and also meeting with the administration and with the Hockaday Student Council, the S.M. Student Council was able to respond to the needs of the student body as well as to direct them constructively. The Council sponsored the Homecoming Dance, Field Day, and a spring dance, as well as directing the bi-weekly assemblies.

ST. MARK'S

STUDENT STORE

Student Store

The St. Mark's Student Store, under the leadership of manager Lee Webster, assistant manager Byron Pendley, and Mrs. Mary Ann Taylor, completed a very profitable and successful year. In addition to increasing the variety of items sold, the store was financially sound. A new policy of collecting bills helped increase the efficiency of the store, while inundating the cash flow to an acceptable level. Once again the store was aided by several mothers who volunteered their time and energy.

Whiz Quiz

This year's whiz quiz team experienced a rebuilding year with only one member of last year's team returning. The team included senior Jon Ross and juniors Rick Baker, Bill Goldstein, and Reid Neurieter. The team competed against other squads throughout the North Texas region. The team, under the direction of Dean Baird, practiced weekly in order to increase their powers of knowledge and recall. The thirty minute matches were held this year at Dallas Baptist College.

KRSM, 88.5 FM, continued its domination of the air waves under the leadership of Program director Scott Smith, Music director Paul Allred, and faculty sponsor Ken Walters. Smith and Allred teamed up to host this year's marathon and broadcasted non-stop for 60 hours. The marathon succeeded in raising money for the upkeep of the station. Two new program formats were introduced this year as Dial-A-Date and 70 Grand Prix, a public affairs program, took to the airways.

KRSM

Marque

The Marque, St. Mark's magazine of letters and arts, collected the best examples of writing, photography, and art from the student body and published them in early spring. This year's Marque, under the direction of co-editors Scott Segal and Lamar Adkins, and faculty sponsor Dr. Anne Freeman, succeeded in publishing the twenty-first volume of the Marque. Also, Scott Segal made numerous pitches for the Marque in an effort to gather fine pieces of creativity from the student body.

The Remarks-a-lot, the middle school newspaper, continued to improve and grow in the number of pages and in the size of the staff. Editors Robert Behrendt, Brad Telford, and Holme Oltrogge produced an issue every month. The Remarks-a-lot gives the middle school students an opportunity to improve their writing skills and to gain valuable experience that can be further developed in upper school publications. Once again, Mrs. Mailer and Mr. Smith were the faculty sponsors.

Remarks-A-Lot

Cum Laude

Five members of the senior class were inducted as juniors into the Cum Laude Society on February 26, 1981. At the twenty-third induction ceremony, Shaun Cohen, Bill Daniel, Mark Epstein, Michael Herring, and Michael Jewell were inducted because of their academic performances which placed them in the top ten percentile of the class. Mr. Patrick Henry '56, chairman of the Religion Department at Swarthmore, addressed the gathering on the problems that the liberal arts institution will face in the future.

Lion and Sword

Under the guidance of faculty sponsor Ken Owens, the members of the 1981-1982 Lion and Sword Society continued to provide services for the St. Mark's community. The group served as guides for prospective students and their parents, as hosts for the miniature schools, and as ushers for the Christmas Party, Baccalaureate, Commencement, and Final Assembly. This year's senior members were William Daniel, Mark Epstein, Allen Fiuzat, Rafe Greenlee, Steve Hart, Kent Hercules, Michael Herring, John Rowlett, Andrew Shoup, David Todd, Locke Urschel, and David J. Wood, and the juniors included Dan Bailey, Grant Beckham, Grant Dorfman, Michael Egues, Rosser Newton, Lee Papert, B. G. Porter, and Kevin Teal.

National Merit Semifinalists

Fifteen St. Mark's seniors, the most ever, earned National Merit Scholarship semi-finalist recognition. Shaun Cohen, William Daniel, Keith Goodnight, Michael Herring, Michael Jewell, Don Lloyd-Jones, Jeremy Ofseyer, Sam Paulos, Keith Sartain, David Schreiber, Scott Segal, Scott Smith, David A. Wood, David J. Wood, and Hisham Syed qualified for semi-finalist standing by placing in the top-one-half of one percentile nationwide on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test (PSAT).

The Remarker

Unlike normal high school organizations, The Remarker demands excessive amounts of time and dedication. Traditionally, members of the paper are noted for their lack of homework assignments, and on layout weekends, they disappear until the following Monday, when the paper is supposedly finished. Editor-in-Chief was Hisham Syed, who worked with a staff of six senior editors. Steven Hart and Michael Herring were the Managing Editors, while Shaun Cohen served as the Associate Editor. Contributing and News Editors were Lee Chastain and Don Lloyd-Jones, respectively. The Photo Editors for the paper were seniors Mark Hurst and Eric Reeves, and sophomore Keith Owens, while seniors Byron Pendley and Larry Sarner worked on the circulation. Despite appearances, this staff was much smaller than normal high school publications and lacked underclass support. The small staff, combined with the fact that there is neither a journalism class nor a journalism instructor, made the high quality of the paper all the more amazing.

MARKSMEN 1982

The 1982 Marksmen experienced many problems in the production of the yearbook, particularly in the lack of staff and the absence of enough photographers. But through it all, Editor-in-Chief Tom Penzel and Faculty Sponsor Warren Foxworth have tried to produce an interesting and entertaining yearbook. Lee Papert, the Photography Editor, without whom the yearbook could not have been completed, and Allen Fiuzat, the Associate Editor, lended their expertise. The staff met five deadlines with the final deadline being completed in mid-February.

Cross Country

The 1981 Cross Country Team

1981 saw the St. Mark's Cross Country team finish with another successful season. Though young and inexperienced, the team more than made up for its lack of experience with enthusiasm and hard work. This year's varsity team was composed of three seniors, captain John Rowlett, Matt Hollon, and Ola Henriksson; three juniors, Bobby Lett, Clay Miller, and Keith Guyett; two sophomores, Greg Hurst and George Masek; and two freshmen, Rowland Butler and John McEvoy. This year's team began the season knowing that they were underdogs to the more experienced S.P.C. teams, such as Greenhill and Casady. Consequently, they worked hard by running long, aerobic runs as well as fast repeat and hill workouts. With these training strategies and the coaching of Andrew Mailer, Curtis Smith, and Jim McInerny, the inexperienced squad had a strong season.

The Lions placed first at the prestigious Grady Spruce Invitational meet as well as winning a dual meet against Bishop Lynch at halftime of the Homecoming game. The team placed a strong fourth at S.P.C. Lett was named to the All S.P.C. team, while Hurst and McEvoy were named to the S.P.C. Honorable Mention team.

This year's team was one of the youngest in St. Mark's history, but the potential for improvement is tremendous. With the maturation of Lett, Hurst, McEvoy, and Butler, St. Mark's should once again dominate S.P.C.

The 1981 Team and Coaching Staff

It was supposed to be a year of rebuilding. Impartial observers expected the team to win two games at most; their main concern was that the younger players gain experience for next year.

However, many failed to take into account the determination of this year's squad. Led by Head Coach Sherman Zimmerman and captains Brian Neuhoff, Locke Urschel, and Bob Browning, the Lions made this season one of the best in recent years.

Their 5-5 record is not by itself spectacular, yet it is incredible when considering what they had to work with. With only eight returning starters and a lack of strength and natural ability, propsects looked bleak. But the team's combination of spirit, drive, and determination made up for any physical shortcomings.

The year began poorly, as Lubbock Dunbar trounced the Lions 42-7. Though the team played badly, they learned a lot. In each of the remaining games, they were always competitive, even when losing, as evident in the loss to Jacksonville, 15-8.

St. Mark's won its first game by beating archrival St. John's 16-15. Junior Andrew Wilson scored the winning touchdown in the last seconds of the game.

After the next week's emotional and highly debatable 16-13 loss to Trinity Christian, the Lions won four of their next five games. First Baptist, Nolan, Dunne, and Lynch all fell prey to the spirited Lion squad.

The season's final game at F.W. Country Day climaxed the team's efforts. Although they dominated defensively and offensively, they lost 14-13, as the winning touchdown was called back on a penalty.

Instrumental to the success of the team were the coaches and the fans. New offensive coordinator Malcolm Walker and assistant coaches Bob King and Mark Gibson helped Zimmerman make this a great year.

Water Polo

The water polo team's season can best be characterized as a rebuilding one. The team, under the guidance of coaches John Stutsman and Ken Merten, and led by captain Jeff Rasansky, improved steadily as the season progressed. The inexperience of the team proved to be a factor throughout the season. The freshmen, though lacking experience, added considerable depth to the team.

The first tournament of the year was held in Austin at the University of Texas. It was a novice meet intended for college water polo teams. The Lions, missing some of their starters, lost both of their games to stronger and more experienced teams.

At the St. Mark's Invitational, the team won one match while losing two others by a margin of only two goals. They improved with each game and tournament, heightening their chances to go to State. The polo team finished seventh at the Northside Invitational in San Antonio, and in the regional tournament the Lions defeated a team from Colene, earning themselves a berth in the State Tournament.

The Lion performance at State can only be termed as a disappointment. The players expected to finish in the top three but only managed an eighth place finish. The Lions lost to powerhouse Alamo Heights, Northside, and Jay.

The water polo team's top performers were Gordon Mize, Mark Hurst, Todd Clark, Jeff Rasansky, Mike Upton, Ken Hunt, Erik Jones, and freshman goalie Tom Neuhoff. The youth on this year's team should make the Lions even better next year.

Basketball

The 1981-82 team with coaches Jernberg and Card.

The 1981-82 season proved to be a highly successful one for the St. Mark's basketball team. Under the tutelage of first year coach Jan Jernberg, the team finished with an impressive 19-12 record, compiling the first winning record since 1974. St. Mark's also earned a berth in the SPC Division I, ending the season with the runner-up trophy behind Casady.

Beginning in mid-October, the season was a long and physically tiring one. The team also experienced some disappointing injuries. Senior Rafe Greenlee missed most of the season with an ankle injury, while playmaker Roby Mize missed five games due to a chipped bone in his foot.

The St. Mark's team experienced many ups and downs through the course of the season, losing heartbreakers to Waco Robinson by two, FWCD by one, and Trinity Christian by three. Later in the season they avenged the loss to Trinity Christian with a 50-45 victory.

At the North Zone Tournament in Wichita, Kansas, the Lions performed poorly. They managed to defeat Wichita Collegiate in triple overtime only when junior Steve Eckelman hit the winning basket. They then lost to both Casady and Holland Hall. However, despite the 1-2 record, the Lions made it into the tough 1st Division.

In the SPC Tournament at Trinity Valley, the Lions dominated their opponents, compiling a perfect 3-0 record. St. Mark's defeated Trinity Valley 62-60 in overtime, T.M.I. 52-38, and Kinkaid 39-36, thus assuring them of a second place finish. Junior Roby Mize earned all-conference honors, while Eckelman, Robertson, Nelson, and Jordan also played extremely well. The starters were backed by a strong bench consisting of Anderson, Papert, Robinowitz, and Rasansky.

With the loss of only one senior, the basketball team should be even better next year.

Fencing

The 1981-82 Fencing Team

The St. Mark's fencing team produced one of their most outstanding seasons in the history of the school. Under Head Coach D. P. Nevot and assistant coaches Rick Lawrence and David Forman, the preseason team began the year with a fifth place showing by team captain Robert Brown in men's foil at the annual Duel at Dallas Tournament, Lawrence having placed third in the same event last year.

With the start of the regular season, the team increased in size to 50 novice and returning letterman fencers, including David Schreiber, Bob Streilein, David Stone, and co-captain of this year's team, Clay Bradfield. Most of the team members entered the next tournament, the qualifications for the National Junior Olympic Competition, while seven St. Mark's entrants qualified. Among these were Brad Davis, placing first in under 20 épée; Clay Bradfield, placing second in under 20 sabre; and Matt Lipton, placing first in under 16 sabre. This year's team also included several Hockaday students, two of whom qualified for the Junior Olympics — Marla Custard and Denise Wilson, placing in women's foil.

In February the team travelled to Los Angeles for the Junior Olympics, the culmination of the season. Under the supervision of Mr. Lawrence, the St. Mark's fencers were relatively successful compared to last year's performance. Lipton began with an eleventh place showing in under 16 sabre, followed by Bradfield who reached the second round of under 20 sabre. Fencers Ken Polley and John Ewton were eliminated in the first rounds of under 16 épée and sabre, respectively. Though Brown was removed in the preliminary rounds of under 20 men's foil, he finished the tournament placing eighth in under 20 épée.

Next year's team captains will include Glenn Mai, Bob Streilein, and Mark Segal in what promises to be another successful season under the coaching expertise of Monsieur Nevot and his assistants.

Soccer

The 1981-82 team minus coaches Meyer and Egues, and C. Alpert and M. Egues.

The Lion soccer team continued its dominance of area opponents in posting a 17-2-4 season record. Three individual records were broken — most goals in a season (85), most goals by a player (34) and in a game (6), both set by Max Piccagli, who also tied the record for number of hat-tricks (4) in a season. Under the leadership of coaches Meyer and Egues, and senior captains Bob Browning and Max Piccagli, the Lions won the NTHSSA championship for the second consecutive year. In SPC competition they tied for second place with Holland Hall.

The team played the toughest schedule in the history of the school, averaging three games a week. It was not just the number of games played but the caliber of the opposition that made it a difficult but rewarding season. The Lions played in the first annual Jesuit-Meinster Invitational, defeating W. T. White while losing to last year's city champs J. J. Pearce in double overtime, 2-1. St. Mark's, except for the Pearce lost, dominated area public schools, defeating Berkner, Highland Park, and tying Hillcrest.

In NTHSSA action, Jesuit and Greenhill offered St. Mark's the greatest opposition in repeating as the champions for the second consecutive year. St. Mark's tied Jesuit twice, 0-0 and 2-2, leaving both teams in a virtual deadlock for first place. But Greenhill, with the luck that characterized their entire season, defeated the Jesuits. In a must win situation, the Lions travelled to Greenhill where they won handily 3-0, assuring St. Mark's of the NTHSSA championship.

For the first time in three years, St. Mark's did not repeat as the SPC champs, losing the crown to Greenhill. The Lions were surprised by Holland Hall, losing 2-1 in double overtime. They then had to beat Greenhill once again to have any chance to win SPC. But with Greenhill playing a very defensive game, the Lions could only manage a 1-1 tie. Combined with the loss to Holland Hall and the tie with Greenville, St. Mark's had no chance to win SPC.

In the SPC tournament at Trinity Valley, the Lions outscored their South Zone opponents 14-1. Everyone who watched the play of St. Mark's compared to Greenhill had no doubt as to who was the better team. While the entire team deserved All-SPC, senior Browning, Piccagli, Penzel, and Herring were awarded all-conference honors.

At the SPC tournament the team exhibited the class and "wantness" which symbolized their play during the entire season. Next year should be even better with fullbacks Neureiter, Meadows, Baker, and Price returning, along with halfbacks Hunt, Burdette, and Egues, and forwards Bailey, Alpert, and Bower.

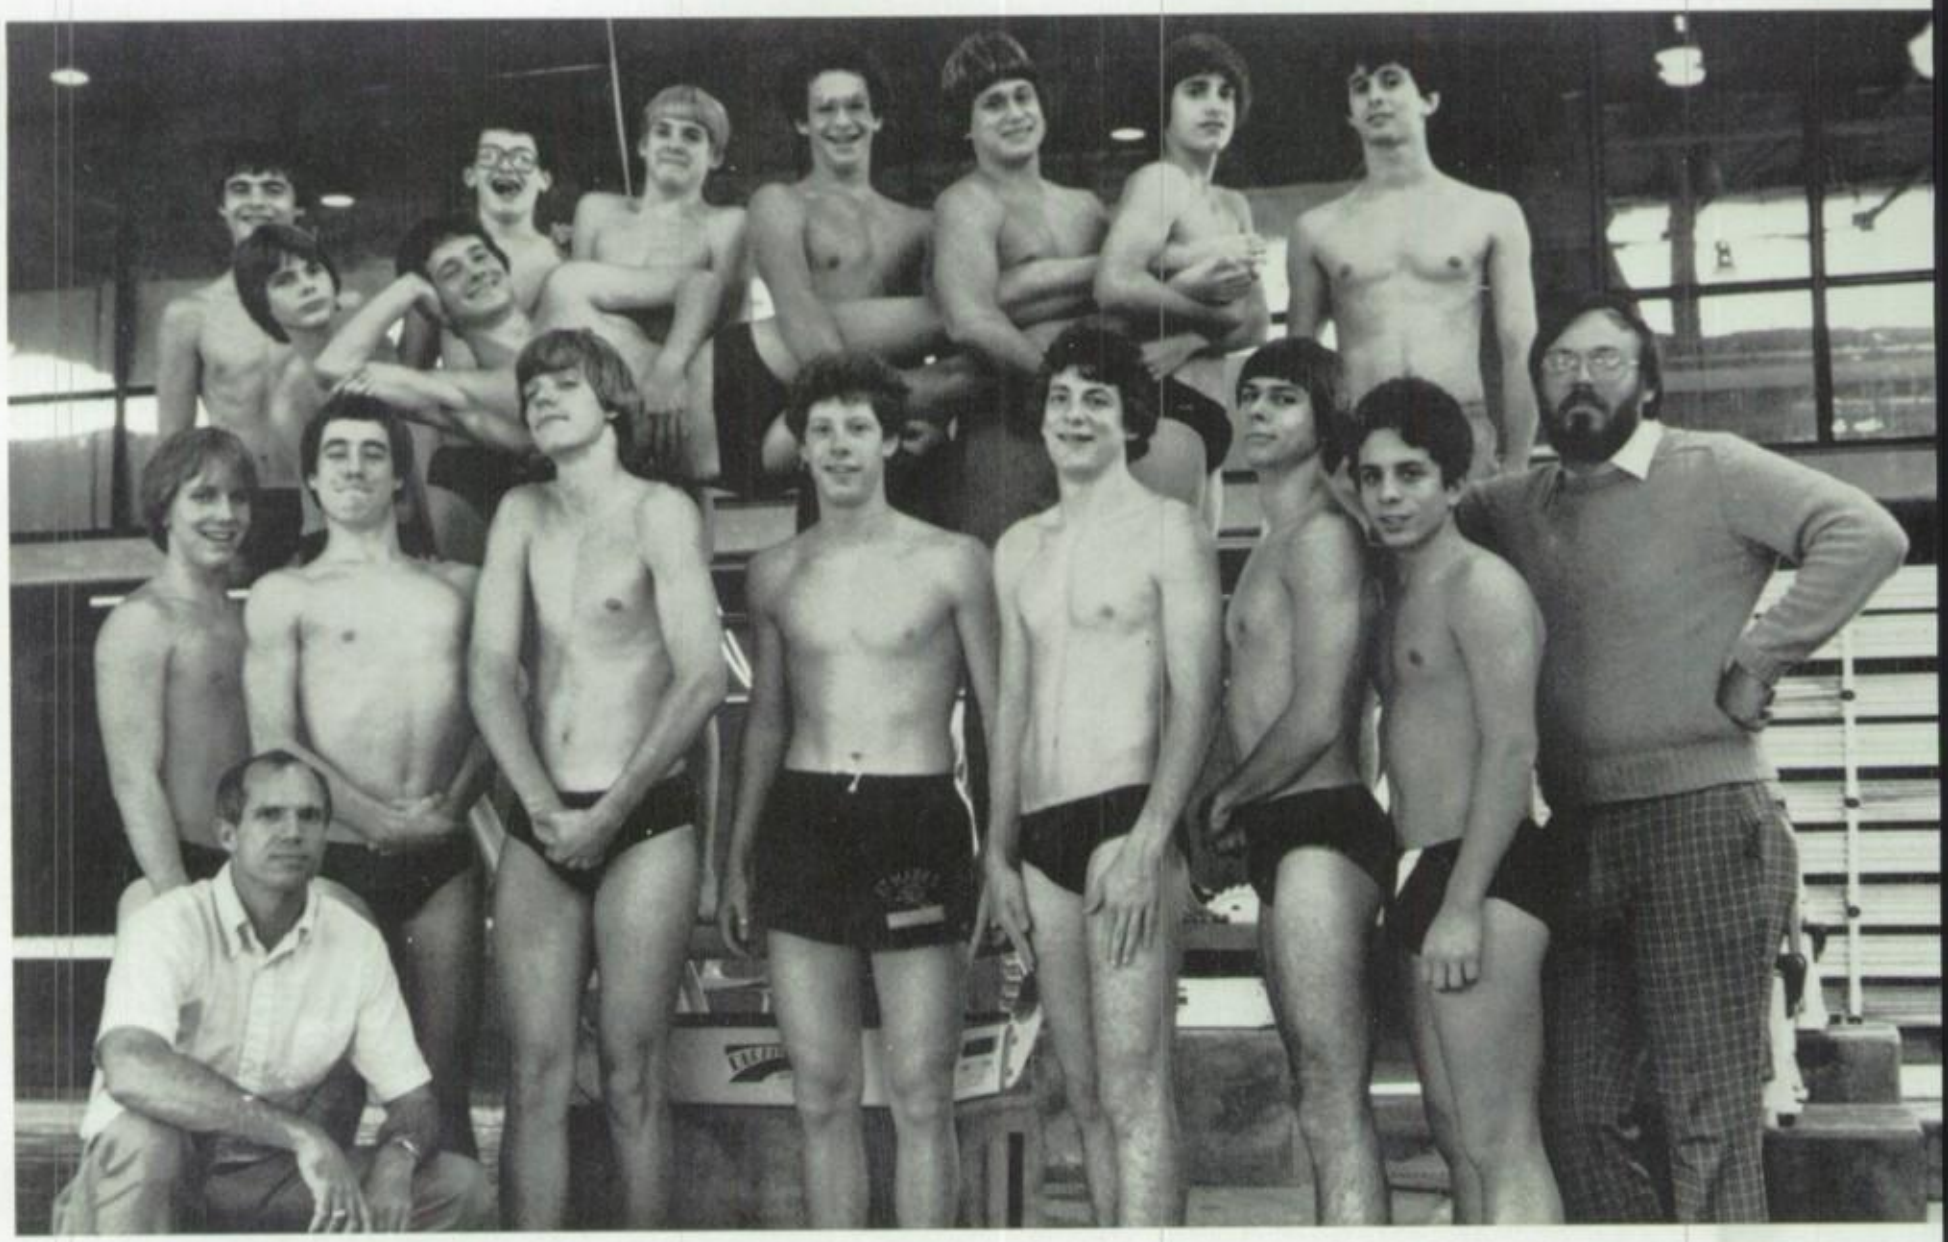
Swimming



The 1981-82 swimming team

The St. Mark's swim team, headed by coaches Ken Merten and John Stutsman, continued to uphold the St. Mark's tradition of fielding excellent swimmers. The team competed in numerous dual meets as well as invitational meets comprised of teams from all over Texas.

The Lions opened the season with a disappointing loss to Jesuit. In the pre-TISCA meet at Loos Stadium, Todd Clark broke the school record in the 100 yard breaststroke. The rest of the squad performed respectably, while showing the excellent depth which the team had. After the meet at Loos, the team competed in four dual meets, defeating Highland Park and Bishop Dunne, while losing to J. J. Pearce and Richardson. The victory against Highland Park was particularly devastating, demonstrating the enormous potential which St. Mark's was capable of producing.

The Lions competed in the Trinity Christian Invitational, in which twenty teams were represented. The medley relay team consisting of captain Mark Hurst, Paul Martin, Todd Clark, and Wade Stokes finished second, narrowly missing first place by five hundreths of a second, while also just missing the school record.

The Lions qualified four members to the State TISCA meet in Houston. Captain Mark Hurst made consolation finals in the 100 and 200 yard fly and finished 11th and 12th, respectively. Junior Todd Clark made consolations in the 100 and 200 yard breastroke, while also placing 11th and 12th, respectively.

In the last dual meet of the season the team defeated Berkner. The highlight of the meet was when sophomore Wade Stokes broke the school record in the 100 yard backstroke.

The team also qualified four members for the Prep School Nationals in Lawrenceville, N.J. The four were Mark Hurst, Todd Clark, Wade Stokes, and Paul Martin.

Wrestling

Coaches Brennan and McInerny and the 1981-82 team.

The 1981-82 wrestling team will long be remembered as one of the best in the school's history. Utilizing a combination of outstanding upperclassmen and determined freshmen, the Lions posted a perfect 13-0 record.

For the first time the Lions participated in grueling preseason tournaments in Austin and Amarillo. It was this extra preparation that left the Lions ready to tackle a tough dual meet schedule. The highlight of the dual meet season occurred in early December when a Craig Copps pin assured the Lions of a 33-31 victory over Irving MacArthur, the defending state champions. Other important victories included a close 34-33 decision over Kimball, and 48-23 and 46-28 decisions over Lake Highlands and Richardson, respectively. Coming through the dual season undefeated were seniors Eric Reeves and David Genecov, while fellow senior Craig Copps and juniors B. G. Porter and Nicky Anderson each lost only once.

In tournament competition this year's team again proved to be one of the best in the state. Once more the seniors led the way. In the R. L. Turner Tournament Eric Reeves and Craig Copps took home top honors, while David Genecov and Nicky Anderson added to the team's second place finish by taking second places themselves.

Everyone on the team contributed to the team's overall success. Junior B. G. Porter, in only his second season, placed in every meet and served as an inspiration to his team and coaches. Fellow junior Nicky Anderson sacrificed a state placing by moving up to a much tougher weight class and performed very well. Seniors D. A. Wood, Brian Neuhoff, and Steve Schultz had great seasons and contributed valuable team points at the meets. However, freshmen Kurt Voelker, Bill Pittman, Jerry Miller, and Clay Nichols were largely responsible for the team's success. Their never-say-die attitude and determination against superior opposition sparked the team to a better year than anyone expected.

The highlight of the year occurred at the State Championships in Irving. Seniors Eric Reeves and David Genecov lived up to their high rankings by dominating their weights, becoming the school's seventh and eighth State Champions. Seniors Craig Copps and Steve Schultz added to the team's fourth place finish by taking third and sixth respectively.

Seniors Copps, Reeves, and Genecov served as the team captains for 81-82. Their leadership and dedication will serve as a model for years to come. A finer group of captains has not darkened St. Mark's halls in a long time.

Of the ten highest-rated General Motors dealerships in America, only one is in Dallas.

Recently, General Motors sured customers all across the ntry through a program called Customer Satisfaction Index.
urvey that gauged the satis-
ion of customers who had pursed a GM car the year before.
When all the information was piled, Sewell Village Cadillac not only one of the top ten eral Motors dealerships in the ntry, we were also the highest-d Cadillac dealership in all Texas.

Why are our customers so satisfied? We think the reason is simple. When you buy a Cadillac, you deserve to be treated like a Cadillac owner. At Sewell Village Cadillac, that means service. When you buy a new Sewell Village Cadillac, you get the free use of one of our 40 loan cars, a Service Department that's open all day Saturday, and 84 service bays. You receive helpful, friendly assistance every time you walk into the showroom. Every time you drive into the Service Department.

The Goodnight Family

Dear Mom,
Thanks for everything you have done while I was at St. Mark's. I appreciated your understanding when my grades weren't too good, and your encouragement to do better.

I also appreciated the work you put into so many projects — the garage sale and auction, in the cafeteria and bookstore, class picnics, chaperoning at dances and mixers, all above and beyond the call of duty. Thank you for always being at choir and theatre performances, teachers' and advisors' meetings, and thanks for always making my friends feel comfortable.

Most of all, for being there whenever I needed you,
I am truly grateful.

love, Bill.

The Dream Of A SURE THING

At one time or another we all have dreamed of being at the right place at the right time so that we could make nearly simultaneous transactions — buying at a low price and selling at a high price.

Suppose that 10,000 shares of I.B.M. stock was offered on the Pacific Exchange. Chances are it would depress prices a bit. And if 10,000 shares of I.B.M. stock was wanted on the New York Exchange, chances are it would cause prices to rise a bit. The prices on the two markets get out of parity with each other. And there you are, right in the middle, making a bundle, buying with one hand and selling with the other.

It is beautiful, and doesn't have to be a dream.

The name for this type of transaction is arbitrage — defined in the dictionary as, "The purchase of identical or similar securities on one market for immediate resale on another in order to profit from a price discrepancy."

Instead of dealing in the stock market, we are going to buy and sell government securities -- bills, notes, bonds -- as values get out of line with one another. And we won't be limited to the cash markets if it's the futures markets that get out of line. We will just purchase identical or similar securities on one market for immediate resale on another in order to profit from a price discrepancy. Either time will bring prices back into alignment, or the delivery transaction will.

Overly simplified, that is the business of ContiCommodity Arbitrage. Thus, for the investor seeking to enrich the overall performance of his investment portfolio, arbitrage trading provides a unique opportunity -- one which could provide a 30-50% annual return on investment with a lower level of risk than is usually associated with most leveraged trading programs.

If trading the price relationships of government securities in an account of $50,000 or more interests you, give us a call or drop us a line.
